Nominee.

STOPS TO PERMIT SHORT RECEPTION

Prominent New York
Women Will Accompany
Party; First Speech To Be in Kentucky.

Albany, N. Y., October 8.—(AP)—On his way to Tennessee and Kentucky on the resumption of his campaign for the presidency, Governor Smith will traverse sections of Virginia and North Carolina and make rare platform appearances in at least five cities of these states.

A partial itinerary for the second campaign tour of the democratic presidential nominee, announced by him tonight, calls for his departure by regular train from Albany tomorrow at 12:40 p. m. for New York. After conferences there with party leaders Wednesday, he will board his special train and depart for the south at 11 o'clock Wednesday night.

Richmond will be the first stop for a personal appearance by the nominee from the rear of his eleven-car train, 9:15 a. m., Thursday being the time set for his arrival at the Virginia capital. The length of the stay there and at the other cities en route to Tennessee was not announced.

Raleigh, N. C., will be reached at 3 p. m. the same day and other cities in that state where stops are planned are Greensboro at 7 p. m.; Salisbury at 8:30 p. m.; and Charlotte at 9:30 p. m.

Arrival at Chattanooga is set for 11 a. m. Friday. After three hours spent there in conferences with party chieftains, the nominee will leave for Nashville, arriving there at 6:30 p. m. Further conferences will take place there before the governor leaves for Louisville that night for the first speech of the trip Saturday night. Arrival at the Kentucky city is scheduled for 10 a. m. Saturday.

Governor Smith also announced that Representative Joseph W. Byrns, of Tennessee, ranking democratic member of the house appropriations committee and Norman H. Davis, assistant secretary of the treasury and under secretary of state successively under President Wilson, will accompany him on the campaign trip. Representative Byrns was one of the candidates first viewed by Albany after his nomination at Houston and as a member of the powerful appropriations committee he will be able to acquaint the governor with information about the federal government's financial affairs.

Harrison Stays in New York.
Senators Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, will not go on the trip, the governor added, but will remain at the New York headquarters.

Mrs. Smith and their daughter, Mrs. John A. Warner, will be with the nominee as on the first campaign trip to the west.

Another distinguished feminine member of the party will be Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, wife of the artist and sister of Lady Astor.

Asked whether he had selected the tariff as the theme for the Louisville speech, as reported in this morning's newspaper, Governor Smith said that he had not definitely determined the subject of that address. He added that "there will be no more forecasting of speeches coming from me," and that in the future he did not expect to disclose the subject of speeches in advance of their delivery.

New York, October 8.—(AP)—Diamonds valued at $275,000 were taken today by four robbers who invaded the A. K. S. Jewelry and Manufacturing company on West Forty-sixth street, tied two gem merchants to a radiator and escaped in the noonday crowd.

Solomon B. Stein, member of the firm, was displaying some stones to Joseph Goldmuntz, a jeweler, in the floor suite when the door buzzer rang. Stein answered the bell and was confronted by four men, one of whom thrust a revolver close to his face.

"Now don't be silly," advised the stranger, "because if you move we'll fill you with lead."

The four men followed Stein into the inner room where Goldmuntz was looking at two wallets of diamonds lying on a desk. He was told to put up his hands. While one robber seized the stones, others bound the jeweler to a radiator.

Stein was then escorted to the safe from which the visitors took gems valued at $75,000. After tying the proprietor to the radiator beside Goldmuntz, the robbers departed.

First estimates placed the loss at $400,000, divided equally between the diamonds in the safe and those in the wallets. Later, however, it was learned that the value of the former assortment was $75,000.

The bandits missed a $15,000 diamond-studded bracelet which a jeweler had sent to Stein for repairs. It lay, wrapped in paper, on a bench.

ATLANTA AIR MAIL ROUTE EXTENDED

New Service to Albany,
N. Y., and Montreal,
Canada, Makes Connection With Schedule.

Air mail service from Atlanta has been extended to Albany, N. Y., and Montreal, Canada, with the additional advantage of making connections at Albany with a western schedule that includes Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo, it was announced here Monday by postoffice officials. The service will enter into effect October 1. Letters leaving here at 7 o'clock at night now will reach Albany at 8:30 o'clock the next morning and will be Montreal by 11:15 o'clock, less than three hours later, it was pointed out. Western mail leaves Albany at 10:10 o'clock in the morning and reaches Buffalo at 1:55 o'clock that afternoon.

The complete schedule is as follows: Leave Atlanta 7 p. m., arrive New York 4:35 a. m.; leave New York 7 a. m., arrive Albany 8:30 a. m.; leave Albany 8:45 a. m., arrive Montreal 11:15 a. m. Mail going west from Albany leaves at 10:10 o'clock and arrives at Schenectady 15 minutes later, at Utica 11:20, at Syracuse 11:55, at Rochester 12:55 and at Buffalo 1:55.

Except for air mail service in the far west this is the first time that a route all the way to Canada has been established, postoffice officials state. The Canadian postal administration will provide return air mail service to Albany but no schedule at the local office, it is said.

ROW AT BARBECUE RESULTS IN DEATH OF GEORGIA YOUTH

Anderson, S. C., October 8.—(AP)—Receiving the bullets believed to have been intended for another in a shooting scrape at a barbecue in Elbert county, Georgia, Saturday night, Malton Robert Powell, 27-year-old Georgian, died at 5 o'clock this morning at a local hospital. Three bullets penetrated the chest.

C. L. Turner, also of Elbert county, was arrested for the shooting. G. T. Greenway, companion of Powell, said the firing started after he had been hailed by a man he believed to be Turner and who was sitting in a parked car near the Sanders Ferry bridge. Greenway was of the opinion that the bullets had been intended for him rather than for Powell. He is survived by his widow and four small children, his parents and several brothers and sisters. Elbert county will be held tomorrow in federal court.

Function of Electricity in South's Development Discussed in Opening of Meeting Here.

Electricity's function in the future development of industry and agriculture in the south formed the basis of addresses delivered by prominent educators and power and investment executives at the Southern Appalachian Power conference Monday, marking the opening of a three-day session at the Atlanta-Biltmore hotel.

When the session gets under way again at 10 o'clock this morning, it will hear distinguished speakers discuss power legislation and rates for power. In the afternoon the general topic of conservation of water powers and forests will hold the center of interest with leaders in this field addressing the large assembly of power officials attending the conference here.

J. A. Switzer, member of the executive committee and hydraulic engineer of Knoxville, Tenn., will preside at the morning session. Speakers scheduled to talk on the legislative and rate-fixing aspect of the

KIDNAPER TAKES NEWS CALMLY

Justice Sutherland and Brandeis Hear Requests and Decline To Entertain New Trial Motion.

Washington, October 8.—(United News).—For the second time today William Edward Hickman, youthful slayer of Marion Parker, 12-year-old Los Angeles school girl, lost in efforts of his attorney to have execution stayed by a justice of the United States supreme court.

Justice Sutherland refused tonight to consider the plea of Hickman's attorney, Jerome K. Walsh, of Kansas City, after Justice Sutherland, who handles Pacific Coast appeals, made a similar refusal earlier in the day.

The young attorney commented merely "I have nothing to say" when he emerged from Justice Brandeis' home here tonight. But his disclosure that he was going to lay his plea before Justice Willis Van Devanter later in the night revealed his failure. Consent of only one justice is necessary for an appeal, filing of which would pave the way for a stay of execution.

Walsh may visit a majority of the nine members of the court before he gives up his last efforts, he indicated. Hickman is under sentence to be hanged in San Quentin prison October 19—a week from Friday. Only executive clemency by the California governor could save him if all members of the court refuse to grant the appeal from the California supreme court decision approving the conviction and sentence.

Walsh's constitutional question, on which he is relying to bring the case before the supreme court, is the highest court, is based on a charge that the new California criminal law is a violation of the federal constitution.

20 PRISONERS BURN TO DEATH IN OHIO BLAZE

Wooden Dormitory Proves

Unable To Escape Fire
at Penitentiary.

THREE PROBES GET UNDER WAY

Doors Are Thrown Open to Men Who Forfeited Freedom But Only Respite Found in Death.

Junction City, Ohio, October 8.—(AP) While men toiled to bring out the charred remains of the victims, two investigations were under way tonight and a third had been planned to fix the cause of the fire which is believed to have caused the death of 17 to 20 convicts when it destroyed the wooden dormitory at the state brick plant here early today.

John E. Harper, state welfare director, launched an investigation immediately upon his arrival from Columbus, and Governor Donahoe ordered C. H. Sisson, his personal investigator, to the brick plant late today to conduct an inquiry. Warden P. E. Thomas, of the Ohio penitentiary, telephoned from Kansas City that he was returning at once to investigate the fire.

20 Prisoners Missing.
Twenty prisoners were said by prison officials to be missing. Twelve others seriously burned or injured were taken to the penitentiary hospital at Columbus for treatment. The same officials said they believed three of the 20 missing men had seized the opportunity to escape from the custody of the guards during the confusion that followed discovery of the fire, but others including some of the convicts declare none escaped.

The fire, according to prisoners, guards and officials here, started in the commissary room where linen supplies were stored and is believed to have been caused by defective electric wiring.

The work of removing the remains from the ruins of the dormitory was begun late today, and it was a difficult and gruesome task. Most of the bodies were badly burned that any attempt at identification was futile and many bodies were unrecognizable, even those partially burned, were found.

Identification Tentative.
Identification was attempted but only tentative, being based for the most part on the location of the body when found. Prisoners aided to some extent in the work, but in no case were they able to identify a body with certainty. A dentist who did work for the prisoners also was aiding by examining the teeth in the skulls brought out. The bodies were to be buried in the New Lexington cemetery, near here, with markers for those whose identity was established.

Bodies believed to be those of John Duncan, Toledo negro; Moses Broncho, Franklin county negro, and Ray Cooper, of Fairfield county, were identified in this manner.

Eight other bodies, impossible of identification, also were brought out. The bodies of the men, being carried to the morgue, were placed in a room where they were kept until they could be identified. The bodies were placed in a room where they were kept until they could be identified.

The dormitory, a barn-like structure of wooden frame and corrugated iron covering, erected upon a 10-foot brick foundation, housed 275 prisoners sleeping in two-tiered bunks, arranged in pairs with narrow aisles between them. There are 288 men at the brick plant, but 13 of them are "trusties" and were not sleeping in the dormitory.

Robinson Shows Attitude of Two Presidents
Against Bonus for Men

Phoenix, Ariz., October 8.—(AP)—The record of the republican party toward world war veterans drew fire tonight from Senator Joe Robinson, the democratic vice presidential nominee, who declared in a speech prepared for his one and only campaign address in this state, that President Coolidge "had failed to deal with the problem in a decisive manner" and sought to continue the policies of President Harding which he described as "unjustifiable."

Speaking here in Phoenix, which is approximately half way between Tucson and Prescott, where two of the largest veterans' hospitals are located, the senator in his prepared address drew a comparison between the record of the federal government toward the veterans and that of Governor Snodgrass toward the soldiers of New York state.

He argued that just as Coolidge had continued the policies of Harding, Herbert Hoover, the republican presidential nominee proposed to continue the

MRS. WILLEBRANDT IS LOSING FAVOR BY SMITH ATTACKS

BY SAM W. SMALL,
Special Staff Correspondent.

Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, unabashed by the savage criticisms upon her campaign activities and methods, has gone down to Tennessee and Kentucky to follow up the Hoover invasion and to try to scatter tacks in the road of Governor Smith.

She is a "hot mama" and shows all the daring and indiscretion of a psychopathic partisan. An interesting feature of her activities is the general belief that she has surely saved off a limb between herself and her ambitions for future official honors.

If Hoover should be elected president she would want to be in his cabinet as attorney general, but very few persons believe that she would choose her for that office. Next to that she would like to be the first woman to be appointed to a federal judgeship. A third event she would have to run the gauntlet of the United States senate for confirmation and it is regarded here as certain that she would be refused such confirmation by any senate likely to function during the next four years. And that seems to be that in Mabel's case.

New Indictments Expected Today In Carnes Case

Most of Documentary Evidence Now Ready for Presentation, Solicitor Boykin Announces.

STATE PLANNING TO SPEED TRIAL

Solicitor Holds Conference With Auditors and Officers of Baptist
Home Mission Board.

Touching for the first time the wholesale raids of Clinton S. Carnes on the treasury of the Baptist home mission board through the flotation of notes in the name of the board, the Fulton county grand jury is expected today to return against the defaulting treasurer a series of indictments through which the state hopes to make its greatest effort to net for Carnes a long term in the penitentiary.

Solicitor General John A. Boykin asserted Monday that he believed most of the Carnes documentary evidence was now ready for presentation to the grand jury and he was ready to offer information revealing the method Carnes is reported to have used to obtain more than $600,000, the bulk of his defalcations.

"There may be some of these transactions which are not quite ready for jury scrutiny, but I think the majority are," the solicitor-general said. "I am going to speed the indictments and the trail of Carnes and let him have his wish to get 'this business over with as quickly as possible.'"

The solicitor said that he had conferred with officers of the mission board and the managers of the local office of Ernst & Ernst, auditors employed by the board to check Carnes accounts. The auditors reported that although they had not yet completed their investigation they were ready to turn over to the prosecutor enough documentary evidence to result in a number of additional indictments. Carnes already is under three indictments charging thefts directly from the mission board treasury. The funds taken are said to have come from the building and loan fund, the largest operated by the board.

"We are going to get several more indictments against Carnes for his

Qualified Voters To Make Use of Ballot.

San Antonio, Texas, October 8.—(AP) Delegates to the American legion convention in session here interrupted their frolicking for a time here today to greet their distinguished guests, hosts and addresser General John J. Pershing and hold a memorial for their dead. Then they returned to their play rather than ever.

The official legion parade does not form until tomorrow morning, but an official parade, spurred on by inspiring music, from 60 bands and drum and bugle corps, swept through the business district all afternoon.

Housing officials estimate that most of the crowd is now on hand, that the total is some place between 60,000 and 70,000. They expect 100,000 south Texans to come tomorrow to see the parade which gets under way at 11 o'clock in the morning.

General Pershing's address was devoted, for the most part, to a plea for the crowd to exert an interest in good government, strong enough to impel qualified voters to go to the polls on election day. The war-time hero, who received a thunderous welcome when he assembled

Minnesota Outlook Enigma With Farm Relief Paramount As Religion Cuts Both Ways

Democrats Very Hopeful of Interesting Voters of Farmer-Labor Group; Leaders Back Smith.

BY D. FIELD BRITTE.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
St. Paul, October 8.—(AP)—With a record of political past performance to substantiate almost any surprise it may produce in November, Minnesota is going into its presidential election with a situation so thoroughly mixed as to offer prompt denial to any prediction.

In this conflict of elements that confounds the only certainty appears to be that farm relief draws the most definite line that will separate the votes of Herbert Hoover and Alfred E. Smith. The question how to assist the agriculturalist, who in Minnesota is a very numerous advocate of McNary-Haugenism, is agreed upon as paramount in virtually every analysis, although the great foreign populations are to be depended upon to decide many votes on the basis of prohibition and religion.

As well defined as is the farm problem, with prohibition and Catholicism cutting both ways between Hoover and Smith, there are many other factors that contribute to the intensity with which Minnesota is being debated. By virtue of much more than its geographical proximity to the La Follette state of Wisconsin, Minnesota shelters a great progressive vote that rallies under the farmer-labor banner and which certainly cannot be lumped off into either the Smith or Hoover columns.

Progressives Strong.
Four years ago that vote went to La Follette 339,000 strong, although Coolidge took the state's twelve electoral votes with a fair margin over both La Follette and Davis. With three tickets in the field in 1912, the progressive, Roosevelt, was first and the regular republican, Taft, a distant third.

But, putting aside the fact there is little comfort for the republicans in Minnesota's election record, the democrats have high hopes this year of welding the farmer-labor strength into their organization to produce a Smith victory. A complication in which they see advantage is the reelection contest of the farmer-labor Senator Shipstead against Representative Arthur E. Nelson. Although denying any sort of a "deal," the democrats announce that Shipstead's reelection was assured.

Shipstead's campaign posters now are being circulated devoid of any party designation, and democratic leaders are hopeful those who vote for Shipstead also will vote for Smith. Senator Shipstead had taken no part in the Hoover-Smith fight, but his republican colleagues, Senator Schall, after, at first declaring he could not actively support the republican nominee, later went to President Coolidge's summer camp to announce that he would do so.

As sources of the strength that they must gain to break the chain of republican successes in national elections, the democrats look to the farmers of the McNary-Haugen school, the prohibition supporters of Lowden, of Illinois, the wet vote in such cities as St. Paul, Minneapolis, and Duluth, and among the foreigners and the miners of the iron ranges. Republican confidence of a Hoover victory is based upon their belief that he will have greater appeal than Smith among the farmers; that his war record will help among the foreigners and that he will gather strength because of his espousal of the St. Lawrence waterway. The republican argument most in use for Hoover is farm relief and the tariff; against Smith it is the governor's Tammany connections.

Leaders Back Smith.

Democrats have gained hope not only from the fact that former Senator Magnus Johnson, farmer-labor, has endorsed Smith, but also from the more active support of two outstanding Minnesota farm leaders. They are F. W. Murphy, legislative representative of the corn belt committee, advocate of the McNary-Haugen bill and a Lowden delegate to the Kansas City convention, and J. F. Reed, who resigned as head of the state farm bureau federation to direct the Minnesota all-party Smith-Robinson clubs.

Murphy, who with Reed endorsed Smith after a number of farmer leaders had conferred with the governor at Albany, has been stumping the state in Smith's behalf and declares he expects to speak almost daily and nightly until election day. Both men are heartily for the McNary-Haugen plan of caring for crop surpluses, and are striving to convince the state's farmers that such assistance can come only from Smith and that Hoover is against the equalization fee idea.

In this campaign that is shot through with pronounced views on prohibition and religion, party leaders have to consider seriously the fact that more than half of Minnesota's population, on the basis of the 1920 census, is of foreign extraction. It includes such groups as 355,000 Germans, 280,000 Norwegians, the same number of Swedes and smaller lots of Austrians, Canadians and Italians. To most of these the democrats look for support for Smith because of his wetness, but in opposition stands the age-old antagonism of German and Scandinavian Lutherans toward the Catholics.

Church Issue Intense.
The Catholicism of Governor Smith is openly discussed by the voters and there are some democrats who, declaring Smith will surpass Hoover on every other issue at the ballot box, believe that if Smith is defeated it will be because of religion intolerance. They say a flood of anti-Catholic propaganda has come into the state to inflame feeling among Protestants.

The city of St. Paul, because it is wet and has a democratic administration, is counted upon by democrats to give Smith a great majority with which to go into the state. Republicans who concede that Smith's chances are good in St. Paul declare, however, that if he gets there he will be melted down by the dry and most republican votes of Minneapolis. Across the river, Duluth, another city with an important flock of votes, has voted dry in the past by a narrow margin and both sides are looking for gains there.

As a whole, Minnesota has a dry record, but in this state as in many another, there are some who predict that records are going to count for nothing when the great majority with which to go into the state. The writer a single answer to a host of questions.

SAVANNAH CONCERN REFUSED REVIEW IN SUPREME COURT

Washington, October 8.—(AP)—Alexander Eccles and Company, of Savannah, Ga., were today refused a review by the supreme court in a case against the Strachan Shipping company, of Brunswick, Ga., seeking to recover the value of 28 bales of cotton claimed to have been lost by the latter.

In the federal district court Eccles and Company obtained a judgment for $6,062 against the shipping company, but lost in the circuit court of appeals which held, among other things, that the shipping company was an agent of the shipping board and was not liable for the loss. The cotton was lost at the Brunswick terminal, and never went on board the ship.

JUDGES TO SPEAK TO INMAN YARDS LEAGUE TONIGHT

With two distinguished speakers slated to address the league, the regular meeting of the Inman Yards Civic league will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Masonic hall in Inman Yards, it is announced.

Judge E. E. Pomeroy and Judge Virlyn B. Moore, both of Fulton superior court, will be on the program of speakers. All members are requested to be present as business of importance will be taken up at this meeting.

TWO CONVICTS ESCAPE

Officers Are Seeking Campbell County Fugitives.

Two convicts, a white man and a negro, escaped from the Campbell county chaingang Monday morning with a county truck, according to advices from Sheriff Campbell of Fulton county police. The escape was made while the two men were in a field gathering fodder, it was said. Their names were not given.

On a report that the two escaped convicts were headed toward Atlanta, Fulton county officers were on the lookout Monday afternoon and Lieutenant J. M. Carroll and Officers J. W. Williams and L. W. Allen reported that the convicts were said to have passed through Ben Hill in the direction of Adamsville in the stolen truck.

TAMPA STARTS VICE CLEANUP IN EARNEST

285 Persons Are Arrested In a Series of Police Raids.

Tampa, Fla., October 8.—(AP)—When Tampa's municipal court recessed for luncheon at noon today the city's strong box was the richer by $1,170. This sum included fines ranging from $15 to $100 assessed against 40 persons caught in the drive by police and sheriff's forces to "smash organized vice."

Three hundred cases were on the court docket when Judge Watkins mounted the bench at 9 o'clock. A few of them were "plain drunks" and traffic law violators but the majority resulted from the series of raids begun Saturday night and continuing through Sunday. A check of the records show 285 persons were taken into custody on charges of being inmates of gambling and other houses. The courtroom was inadequate for the mob of prisoners ordered to appear today, and corridors were so full that it was almost impossible for anyone to pass through.

Although many of those arrested furnished bond, the jail was so crowded last night that city officials had difficulty in making the place habitable.

"We have not succeeded yet in closing up every illegal place in the city," said A. C. Logan, chief of police, "but we have raided the biggest houses and made so many arrests that the unlawful element will be unable to operate from now on. The town is cleaner and tighter than it has been in 12 years."

Mayor D. B. McKay said "the police are accomplishing the results sought in an order I issued last week to Logan to smash organized vice in Tampa."

The activities of the sheriff's men were based on capices issued by E. L. Chancey, county solicitor, who today criticized laxity of policemen and deputy sheriffs in not enforcing the law. Those arrested by county officers furnished bonds and will be called for trial in county court at a date not yet set.

HARDMAN PRAISES EXHIBIT OF APPLES AT LAKEWOOD

Georgia apples which constituted a feature exhibit at the agricultural building of the recent Southeastern state fair, proved the progress that has been made by the state in production of the fruit, according to a survey of the results of the fair.

The apple exhibit was collected by Troy G. Chastain, of Atlanta, who is interested in orchard properties at Clarksville, Ga. It was arranged by Charles Chambers, of Cornelia. The exhibit took many premiums at the fair and was visited by Governor Hardman and Dr. Andrew M. Soule, president of the Georgia State College of Agriculture, who pronounced the display as creditable in demonstrating the value to the state of the Georgia apple orchard industry.

Buffalo Bill's Cousin, Aged 100 Years, Dies in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Pittsburgh, October 8.—(AP)—Captain John Clarke Anderson, 100 years old, cousin of William F. Cody, "Buffalo Bill," is dead after a varied career, including participation in the gold rush of '49. He lived the 100 years or more, as he said he would.

Anderson crossed the plains on the covered wagon trail through the Sierra Nevada and aided Kit Carson in fighting Confederate raiders in the west during the civil war.

The Indian fighter, who resembled his famed cousin, piloted steamboats on the Ohio and Cumberland rivers in his early life. He recently retired as a farmer. Death came Saturday at his home in Sewickley, a suburb.

Wealthy Carl Morton, struck by her beauty, went to her father and offered to "adopt" her. She would have a lovely home, beautiful clothes, servants—everything. And yet—

A Rich Man's Darling or a Poor Man's Slave?

WHEN people looked at Anna, they marveled. Knowing she had been reared in the back room of her father's saloon, among rough, unkempt men, it did not seem possible that such exquisite beauty, such alluring loveliness, could flower in such an unwholesome environment.

Often Anna wondered if this poverty and evil were the only life she would ever know. How she hated and loathed her surroundings! If someone would only take her out of all this, and give her the true love and respect, the clean, wholesome surroundings, the chance for happiness she so ardently craved.

Was "Luxury" Worth the Price?

Then wealthy Carl Morton, struck by her beauty, went to her father and offered to "adopt" her. She would have a lovely home, beautiful clothes, servants—everything. Stunned, it seemed to Anna that all she had ever dreamed of had suddenly come true. But slowly she came to realize what this "adoption" meant. She was simply being "bought," body and soul.

Instantly every nerve, every fiber of her body was aflame with revolt. Yet what could she do? Her father had "arranged" for her "adoption," and was grimly determined that she go through with it. There was only one way out. That night she slipped out of the house and boarded a train for the city. But fate seemed against her. Friendless and alone, her meager savings quickly exhausted, she soon found herself creaking out a miserable existence.

Love and Poverty or Wealth and Dishonor?

Then destiny brought Frank Weston into her life. Frank, too, was poor, but he loved her—wanted to marry her. And deep in her heart she idolized him. But when she tried to peer into the future, Anna's heart quailed. Life with Frank meant honorable marriage, true love and companionship—perhaps some day a little home and children. But it also meant more poverty and hardship, more struggle and sacrifice—cruel chains she had sought to escape from all her life.

Could she do it? Would marriage under such conditions really bring happiness? Were honest love and her own honor worth the continued want, privation and sacrifice? She could still turn back. Carl Morton, with his power to give her ease, comfort, luxury, would still welcome her. Would it not, after all, be worth the price. Would it not be better to be a rich man's darling than a poor man's slave?

What did Anna do? You will want to read the rest of this profoundly moving story. It is entitled "Is There Any Escape?" and appears complete in November True Story Magazine.

GRAND JURY TO PROBE SLUSH FUND CHARGES

Upshaw's Campaign Money
Also To Go Under Investigation in DeKalb.

Decatur, Ga., October 8.—(Special.)—Charges of former Congressman William D. Upshaw that "Tammany slush funds" were used in the campaign of his successful opponent, Leslie J. Steele, during the September primary, will be taken up by the DeKalb county grand jury, it was announced Monday by Solicitor-General Claude C. Smith, of the Stone Mountain judicial circuit.

The grand jury, organized Monday under the leadership of William Candler, will be asked to investigate the charges of Mr. Upshaw at the earliest possible moment, Mr. Smith declared. While expressing openly his skepticism of the basis of the charges, the solicitor-general declared that it was his intention to get to the bottom of Upshaw's allegations and intimated that the anti-Smith candidate's own campaign expenditures would be subjected to an extensive legal research.

Following his defeat in the September primary, Mr. Upshaw made public his charges that "Tammany slush funds" were used in the campaign and that some districts which were "three to one for Upshaw before the primary" were changed overnight after certain key men were "fixed" with Al Smith coin.

William Schley Howard, chairman of the district executive committee, at once took cognizance of the charges and also announced that the campaign expenditures of the "dry" leader would be gone into.

ACTRESS TELLS SECRET

Tells How to Darken Gray Hair With a Home-Made Mixture.

Joicy Williams, the well-known American actress, recently made the following statement about gray hair, and how to darken it, with a home-made mixture:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will gradually darken gray, streaked or faded hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/4 ounce of glycerine.

These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."—(adv.)

Old Folks Say Doctor Caldwell was Right

The basis of treating sickness has not changed since Dr. Caldwell left Medical College in 1875, nor since he placed on the market the laxative prescription he had used in his practice, known to druggists and the public since 1892, as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Then, the treatment of constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions that result from constipation was entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a combination of gentle and mild laxative herbs, with pepsin.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you, and the better for the general health of all. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with strong drugs?

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will last a family several months, and all can use it. It is good for the baby because pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. In proper dose, given in the directions, it is equally effective at all ages. Elderly people will find it especially ideal. All drug stores have the generous bottle.

THEFT CONVICTIONS MEAN LONG TERMS FOR 2 DEFENDANTS

Two defendants received stiff sentences Monday in Judge John D. Humphries' division of Fulton superior court for crimes involving approximately $25 in each case.

Will Johnson was given a term of four to ten years on plea of guilty to charges of robbing B. A. Evans, of 839 Pulliam street, S. W., of a watch, some keys and 25 cents in cash, all of a total value of $26.50, on September 16.

Convicted of forging a $25 check on the account of W. S. McCurdy at the Peachtree street branch of the Atlanta and Lowry National bank on September 6, Floyd Williams was sentenced to three to four years.

Charlie Smith stole a Fulton county automobile which had been assigned to W. A. Riley, special investigator in the solicitor-general's office, on July 10, according to the verdict of a jury in superior court. Judge Humphries made sure that the country would get Charlie's services in return for the use of the car, and so he gave Smith 12 months on Fulton gang.

The car was stolen from Riley's garage, and was recovered in Henry county.

LIQUOR VIOLATOR GIVEN FINE OF $1,250 ON TWO CHARGES

E. E. Eassey discovered Monday in Judge Jesse Wood's criminal court of Atlanta that the law is hard on prohibition violators. Eassey pleaded guilty to charges of possessing 107 quarts of rye and gin whisky in bottles, and 18 gallons of rye whisky in barrels, and was fined $1,000. On a plea of guilty to charges of possessing distilling apparatus, Eassey was fined $250. The 12 months' sentence on the charges were ordered suspended by Judge Wood on payment of the fines.

Dr. Wilmer Flays Effort To Create New Racial Issue

Efforts to drag the race issue into the present political controversy, whether on one side or the other, were strongly condemned here Monday on both religious and economic grounds in an interview given to the press by Dr. C. B. Wilmer, of Seawane, Tenn., professor of practical theology in the University of the South. "The only result of such a course," said Dr. Wilmer, "will be to inject into an already difficult situation elements of discord that will react unfavorably on our whole religious, domestic and political life. The leadership of the south, clerical and otherwise, is missing an opportunity if it fails to discourage and discountenance such appeals to race prejudice and fear, which every intelligent person must recognize as false and dangerous, unworthy of the white man, and unjust to both white and negro.

White Race in Control.
"The white race is in control of the south today and any attempt to maintain that position by reviving the issues of a bygone past is tragically out of place. Whoever side resorts to such tactics—and both are guilty—is confessing its weakness, and failing to recognize that the voters of the white south, increasingly intelligent and fair-minded, are beginning to resent such attempts to frighten and coerce them when there are grave issues at stake which ought to be decided on their merits.

"The most important thing in the south today," concluded Dr. Wilmer, "is to face facts squarely, to study situations in the love of truth, to form independent convictions and then to vote those convictions fearlessly. The white south, increasingly intelligent and fair-minded, are beginning to resent such attempts to frighten and coerce them when there are grave issues at stake which ought to be decided on their merits."

Here For 24 Years.
Dr. Wilmer was rector of St. Luke's church here from 1900 to 1924 and has since been at the University of the South, at Seawane, Tenn., where he holds the position of professor of theology.

Dr. Wilmer recently preached a sermon here, while supplying in his former pulpit, in which he stated that he thought ministers should not take sides in political questions.

"The church has a message on all public questions," Dr. Wilmer said Monday, "and I think that the preacher should not neglect these grave matters as though 'the gospel' meant only that the individual is to go to heaven when he dies. Preachers can render the greatest service by bringing out the moral and spiritual sides of the questions involved rather than by tying up with particular political measures or legislative enactments," he stated.

The Liquor Question.
"For example," he continued, "everyone admits that the evils of liquor and the liquor business are almost too great to describe and every decent man wants to do away with them. Yet, whether prohibition in its present form is or is not the wisest solution is a question on which intelligent and high-minded men may and do differ."

In conclusion, Dr. Wilmer stated that "perhaps preachers' greatest service to the cause of temperance is in the cultivation of a richer inner life and the promotion of a more equitable social order."

Dr. Wilmer, who spent the week-end in Atlanta, is on his way back to Seawane after having attended a meeting in Alexandria, Va., of the Council of Advice to the Social Service department of the Episcopal church. This department, of which he is a member, has under consideration the whole question of the relation of the church to interracial, political and industrial questions.

Couple Are Freed In Poison Death Of Woman's Mate

Ludowici, Ga., October 8.—(A.P.)—Mrs. Sula Ginn Delk and J. D. Stafford today were exonerated of charges of poisoning Stoney E. Delk, the woman's husband, September 18. The hearing today lasted nine hours.

Both denied any knowledge of the poisoning of Delk, who died apparently from the effects of poison. Mrs. Delk said her husband threatened to commit suicide a week before his death.

While Mrs. Delk was released immediately following the hearing, Stafford was held on a federal charge growing out of the disappearance of several pistols from the Hinesville armory.

The state charged Stafford and the woman with intimacy while Delk was serving a sentence on the state prison farm at Milledgeville on a liquor charge.

Mrs. Delk appeared at the hearing today in full mourning. She is 20 years old and had been married five years.

During the ceremonies, Governor Slaton was presented with a veterans' jewel by Mr. Mayson, Governor Slaton having been a member of the lodge for 35 years. At the conclusion of the exercises, refreshments were served by the ladies of Georgia Rebekah lodge No. 17, I. O. O. F.

Fifteen members responded to the roll call of members of 50 years' standing in the lodge. The entertainment program included offerings by Mrs. B. Manning, Edward Basmajian and Miss Louise Aldridge.

SEVENTH DISTRICT G. O. P. HOLD MEET TO BOOST HOOVER

Rome, Ga., October 8.—(Special.)

The seventh district republican executive committee met in Rome Saturday at the Floyd county court house. J. H. Crawford, Dalton, chairman, presided over the session which was taken up mainly with discussing ways and means of getting the vote out November 6. Walter Ackerman, of Cartersville, is secretary of the organization and John R. Barclay, of Rome and Atlanta, is assistant secretary and R. L. McHan, of Tallapoosa, vice chairman.

Besides endorsing the electoral vote the only other business was discussing getting out the vote. There were six representatives from the district at large and two representatives from the counties in the district present.

Central of Georgia Discusses Railroads' Ability to Meet Future Transportation Demands.

The all around excellence and dependability of railroad service are now generally admitted, and the public expects good railroad service as a matter of course. Advocates of other forms of transportation though frequently base their arguments for support and development of these other forms—bus and truck lines using public highways or boat lines using natural or dredged waterways—upon the plea that the railroads may prove unable to meet the increasing transportation demands that will result from continued development of the United States. There is no ground for such a belief.

In 1926 the railroads handled the greatest traffic in their history, and this with no serious tie-up of equipment or shortage of cars. Practically every shipper who needed a car or cars got what he wanted without delay, and loaded cars were moved promptly and quickly to destination. Despite their tremendous traffic, the railroads operated more efficiently than ever before, nor was their freight handling capacity reached. Great as was the volume of traffic, the railroads could have handled considerably more without any diminution of their efficiency.

Since 1926 the volume of traffic handled by the railroads has shown a substantial decline. Traffic for 1927 was considerably less than in 1926, and traffic for 1928 shows still further declines. The railroads are now handling considerably less freight than they did in their peak year of 1926. If the traffic were offered for handling, the railroads could not only attain but could exceed the efficiency they displayed in handling the record-breaking traffic of 1926. So far as efficiency goes, the railroads are now making even better records than in 1926. With their present equipment and facilities the railroads could handle at least twenty per cent more freight than they are now handling, and this just as efficiently as they are handling their present diminished volume of traffic. If sufficient capital is available, the railroads may be relied upon to keep their equipment and facilities ahead of demands likely to be made upon them.

The public is entitled to any form of transportation that it desires, or that meets a public need. Each form of transportation—the railroads, bus or truck lines, water lines and air lines—can be of public service. Under certain conditions each of these can operate more efficiently than any of the other forms of transportation. But the public should not be misled into thinking that there is any vital necessity for artificial development of any of these forms because of imminent danger that the railroads may prove unable to meet this country's transportation demands.

No matter what development is achieved by the other forms, the railroads will remain the backbone of this country's transportation system. Water ways, bus or truck lines, as well as air lines, can supplement efficiently but cannot replace the railroads. If the railroads are allowed to earn a fair rate of return, a rate sufficiently high to enable them to attract capital in competition with other forms of investment, they will continue able to supply the kind of transportation that this country needs. The allowing of such a rate of return, rather than the artificial development of competing forms of transportation, is the best insurance that can be taken out against a failure or breakdown of our transportation system.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

J. J. PELLEY,
President, Central of Georgia Railway Company.

POLICEMAN HELD IN BOND OF $300 FOR HITTING NEGRO

Charged with assault and battery, Patrolman Mack D. Cartwright was held for the Fulton grand jury under $300 bond Monday by Judge Luther Z. Rosser, of municipal court. Cartwright struck John Bennett, negro, with a blackjack on October 6, according to charges lodged in the warrant sworn out against the officer. Bennett claims that he was struck with a blackjack when he came to police station to inquire about his sister, while the policeman contends that the negro was intoxicated, and that he was forced to strike Bennett when the latter attempted to grab his pistol.

SMITH VICTORY SEEN IN NORTH CAROLINA

Congressman Cox, of Georgia, Returns From Speaking Tour.

Confidence that Alfred E. Smith and Joseph T. Robinson, democratic presidential and vice presidential nominees, will sweep North Carolina in the November election was expressed Monday by Congressman Eugene E. Cox, of the second district, following a speaking tour in that state. Congressman Cox said that reports that the outcome of the presidential election in North Carolina is in doubt are not borne out by the actual conditions prevailing in the "Old North state." He paid a visit to Georgia democratic headquarters Monday on his return from North Carolina.

"The North Carolina democracy is the fighting democracy, strong, virile and unafraid," said Judge Cox. "The people of North Carolina have tasted the bitter fruits of state republican misrule, and they are determined that such a calamity shall not happen again in North Carolina. It is inspiring for a democrat who is interested in reclaiming the national government for decency and morality to mingle with the people of North Carolina and hear what they have to say. There is an enthusiasm that is contagious. They love their party and are proud of the party's nominees. They understand the issues involved in the campaign and delight in maintaining their position with facts and irresistible logic. No particular group nor clan is carrying the banner of democracy in North Carolina. The democrats are working in individual and collective harmony for the success of the national ticket. Every man and woman feels that the fight is his or hers. I have never seen a finer and loftier spirit, and I know that it cannot fail." Judge Cox made several speeches in various sections of North Carolina and his audiences were both large and enthusiastic. When not actually on the stump, the Georgian was in conference with party leaders and mingling with the party's rank and file, and it was through these mediums that he gathered the firm conviction that democracy will triumph in November. Congressman Cox is returning from Atlanta to the second district, and plans to re-enter upon an active campaign in that section of the state. Already he has made a number of speeches in various parts of the second district and while he expresses the utmost confidence as to the result in that district, it is his hope and wish that the democracy will roll up a record-breaking plurality in the November election. While in Atlanta Monday morning, Judge Cox conferred at length with John B. Slater, state campaign manager, concerning local conditions and organization details in the second district.

BODY OF JANITOR BADLY BURNED FOUND IN FURNACE

Elkhart, Ill., October 8.—(AP)—Despite the finding of a broken basement window, a bloodstained crowbar and blood on the furnace door, authorities here held to the belief only C. D. Lambert, 70-year-old school janitor whose body was found in a schoolhouse furnace today, was a suicide. Lambert's badly-burned body was discovered, a note, telling his wife goodbye, and in which he said "telling tales to men caused my downfall" was found in his home. Lambert went to the school at 5:30 a. m. to fire the furnace. His body was found at 7:30 o'clock. Authorities believe he forgot his keys and broke in the window, cutting his hands, and that the other bloodstains found were from his bleeding hands. Lambert, who formerly was mayor of Elkhart, had been in ill health for some time, his children said.

KIDNAPING CHARGE AGAINST YOUTHFUL HUSBAND VACATED

Waycross, Ga., October 8.—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Horne, of Waycross, were threatened by irate parents of Kingsland, Ga., and who were called back from their new home in Waycross to answer charges of "kidnaping" preferred in Camden county against the husband have been allowed to return to their home here. Two weeks ago Horne, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Horne, of Kingsland, ran away with his 14-year-old sweetheart, Mildred George, and they were married. After their marriage they came to Waycross, where the young man had secured a job.

Officers were sent to Waycross to get the couple, charges of "kidnaping" being preferred in just court at Kingsland. Before Justice T. C. Perry could hear the case the parents became reconciled, however, and the charges were withdrawn. "Love will find a way," the judge commented.

6 PERSONS INJURED IN MOTOR CRASH NEAR VIENNA, GA.

Cordele, Ga., October 8.—(AP)—Six persons were in a hospital here today suffering from injuries received in an automobile collision on the national highway near Vienna yesterday. Two of the injured, Edward M. Green and his wife, of Mount Clemens, Mich., were seriously hurt. Three brothers named Brown and a man named Hill, all of Montezuma, were the others injured. The Brown brothers were said to have attempted passing another automobile on a curve, their automobile collided with the Michigan car coming in the opposite direction. Mr. Green received a crushed skull and his wife was believed internally injured. Their automobile and the one occupied by the Brown brothers was demolished.

NEW SOUTH WALES HIT BY STORM AND BUSH FIRES

Sydney, New South Wales, October 8.—(AP)—Wind and fire wrought destruction in New South Wales today. A gale which reached a velocity of 63 miles an hour unroofed hundreds the same time and were spread by of houses. Numerous bush fires broke out at the wind, causing a great destruction of property. A big paper mill at Lance Cove was surrounded by fires and burned with 3,000 tons of coal. There were no deaths.

Chicago Grand Jury To Probe Bombing Of Senator's Home

Chicago, October 8.—(AP)—The bombing early this year of the home of United States Senator Charles S. Deneen and Circuit Judge John A. Swanson—bombings which served to concentrate public interest on April 10 primaries in which Swanson was the Deneen candidate for state's attorney—is one of the matters to be considered by the special grand jury impaneled today. Testimony also was to be taken in connection with the slaying of Diamond Joe Esposito, ward leader for the Deneen faction, who was shot down during the heated April primary campaign. This was the first intimation that the Deneen-Swanson bombings had been the subject of special investigation. Ten secret agents have been conducting a quiet inquiry into the bombings and the Esposito affairs for several months, police said.

DOWNTOWN FIRE

Two Stores Slightly Damaged in Five Points Blaze.

A downtown fire about 2 o'clock Monday afternoon caused some excitement and little damage when the roof of Eplan and company's store, at 18 Decatur street, was ignited, it is thought, by a cigarette thrown from the Gould building next door. Two alarms brought out five companies of the city's firefighting apparatus, but one hose line was sufficient to extinguish the blaze in short order. Traffic was held up for about 30 minutes. Damage was caused principally by water and was confined to the Eplan company, on Decatur street, and the Martin Clothing company, at 11 Edgewood avenue. Loss was estimated as under $200.

NEW BURT ARRIVES

Local Attorney Is Father of Fine Baby Daughter.

Members of the Atlanta bar Monday were smoking good cigars promiscuously at the expense of F. A. Burt, well known local attorney. The occasion was the birth at a local hospital of a healthy baby daughter to Mrs. Burt. The new member of the Burt family was born Saturday and the advent was announced Monday by a profusion of perfumes. Both Mrs. Burt and the baby are reported in excellent condition.

WILLEBRANDT ADMITS SMITH FARM AID BEST

Says She Attacks Governor Solely on His Stand on Prohibition.

Owensboro, Ky., October 8.—(AP)—Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general, continued her fight on Governor Smith's prohibition views tonight, calling on "all Christian people, whether Catholic or Protestant, to join me to defeat the man who recklessly announces that his success will be used to kill prohibition." She spoke at a republican rally. Mrs. Willebrandt again denied that she was making any attack upon the Catholic church or Governor Smith's religion. Earlier in the day, speaking on account of his religion, I do not intend to attack him on that account. I have made no attacks on the Roman Catholic church. I do not intend to make any attacks on that church. "All I have done, I here repeat, is to call on Christian people to help defeat the man who is trying to destroy prohibition which is regarded by the majority of the people of the United States as a great moral reform. Those who have sought to distort my word are the people who are trying to bring liquor back into this country." In this speech, the assistant attorney general charged that Governor Smith was "doing an unfair thing to his own church by trying to hide behind it." She said the democratic presidential candidate had insinuated that her appeal to Methodist ministers to oppose Smith because of his prohibition stand was because of his religion. "There has been a deliberate and willful attempt to misrepresent my part in this campaign," she said tonight. "I have been attacked because I spoke before Christian organizations about rallying to the cause of prohibition and it has been made to appear that I injected a religious issue into the campaign. That is a lie dressed up and waved around like a red herring. I have not attacked Governor Smith on account of his religion. I do not intend to attack him on that account. GOOD NEWS FROM OHIO IS GIVEN HOOPER FOR LARRY SEMON

Carmi Thompson Says State Will Go Republican.

Washington, October 8.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover paused today in the drafting of plans for his Boston speech to receive word of the political situation in Ohio and California.

Optimistic reports were brought him by party leaders from both states.

Myers E. Cooper, of Cincinnati, republican candidate for governor of Ohio, said after his victory over the nominee that the business interests of the state were anxious for a continuance of the prosperity President Coolidge had brought the country. J. E. Knowland, of Oakland, publisher of the Oakland Tribune, declared that the only question about California and other Pacific coast states was the size of the majority that the Hoover-Curtis ticket would roll up.

Cooper was accompanied by Carmi Thompson, treasurer of the state republican committee; Orville Smith, of Cleveland, and Arthur Fenton, collector of internal revenue.

"Business interests of Ohio recognize that Herbert Hoover has been a vital factor in developing this constructive program," Cooper said. "They see in the election of Herbert Hoover, a continuance of the prosperity throughout the country."

"Agriculture, the republican party recognizes, has a problem and the party is pledged to constructively meet its situation placing the business of the farmer on equality with the business of other industries. The farmers of Ohio have full confidence in the sincerity and capacity of Herbert Hoover to give such direction as to fulfill the pledge of our party."

During the day, the nominee also was visited by a delegation of editors of Polish language newspapers from Milwaukee, Chicago, Toledo, Cleveland, Detroit and Buffalo. A. E. Ruszkiewicz, leader of the group, said that there had been a great swing to Hoover during the past two weeks and asserted that the prohibition question was disappearing as an issue among the Poles.

"The Poles are realizing that the president cannot personally change the law," he said, adding that the majority of the members of his race were for the republican candidate because of his war record.

JAP SENTENCED FOR KILLING BOY HELD FOR RANSOM

Honolulu, T. H., October 8.—(AP)—Myles Yutale, 19-year-old kidnap and slayer of Gill Jamieson, 10, was today sentenced to hang by Judge Alva E. Steadman. Governor Wallace R. F. Fong had granted a reprieve for the execution within three weeks under the laws of the territory. Fong had granted a reprieve for the execution within three weeks under the laws of the territory. G. O. P. IS RAPPEL FOR ITS POLICY IN NEIGHBOR STATES

Washington, October 8.—(AP)—Senator Claude Swanson, democrat, of Virginia, speaking tonight over the radio on "The Republican Policy in Mexico and Nicaragua," declared that "the universal esteem once enjoyed by the United States has disappeared in a cloud of criticism, scorn and dislike, because of series of republican diplomatic blunders."

"The republican platform and candidates endorse the policy of President Coolidge in Mexico and Nicaragua," he said, "while the democratic platform and candidates condemn this policy and contend that it is fraught with great danger and perpetrates injustice on these countries and ultimately to Latin America."

"This nation's action in prohibiting the exportation of arms except to the Oregon government" in Mexico, he said, "established the policy that in the future the United States intends to interfere in factional fights in Latin America and to use its power and resources to sustain the faction it favors."

Plans for an entertainment to be given in conjunction with the business routine of the meeting are being formulated.

SIMPLE OBSEQUIES FOR LARRY SEMON

Movie Comedian's Body Taken From Desert to San Bernardino.

Victorville, Calif., October 8.—(AP)—Out of the desert where he had sought the healing air to regain his waning strength, the body of Larry Semon, comedian of the silver screen, late today was taken to San Bernardino, where simple funeral services will be held. Semon died of pneumonia early today at a health ranch near here to which he had gone to recuperate from a nervous breakdown.

Private funeral services will be held at a San Bernardino mortuary, from which the body will be sent to Philadelphia, the comedian's former home, for burial in the family cemetery. Mrs. Nancy Smith, mother of Semon's wife, Dorothy Dwan, also of the films, said that in keeping with the wish of the comedian for a quiet and private ceremony, the time and place of the funeral service would not be made public. Mrs. Smith and her daughter both were with Semon during the last few days of his failing fight.

The screen actor, who was born at West Point, Miss., thirty-nine years ago, had been in the industry for more than twenty years. He had followed a long fight against financial reverses in Hollywood. Last March ending a disastrous attempt to do his own motion picture, he went into bankruptcy for nearly half a million dollars. Worries which followed broke down his health, to recover which he came to the desert here several weeks ago.

ENGINEERS' ORDER HOLDS MEETING AT SPRING HILL

A "good fellowship" meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the ladies' auxiliary will hold Sunday afternoon at Spring Hill, the new building of H. M. Patterson and Son, funeral directors, it was announced Monday.

Carl Rudolf, of Cleveland, Ohio, editor and manager of the journal of the order, will be the principal address. Invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Charles I. Bass.

Mr. Rudolf called attention of his hearers to the advantages of union organization and pointed out that the large crowd attending gave ample tribute to the zeal of Fred Patterson, head of the committee working for the interests of the laboring man.

Mr. Patterson, in reply, related how his father came to Atlanta in 1881, and from his birth the most enjoyable associates of his had been locomotive engineers and their children and that his own association, he felt himself one of them.

EDUCATION BOARD WILL ACT TODAY ON SCHOOL BIDS

Members of the Atlanta board of education are expected to authorize advertisements for bids for $819,000 worth of new school projects at the monthly meeting today, it was announced Monday by George Powell, president.

Eleven additions to various schools are contemplated in the new work. A bid will be launched on the proposed to spend $150,000 of the amount on an addition to the David T. Howard, negro school, in the fourth ward.

Police Captains Called Unfit for Office By Grand Jury

Philadelphia, October 8.—(AP)—The August grand jury, investigating bootlegging and police corruption, in a presentment to Judge Edwin O. Lewis today, recommended the removal from office of Police Captains James Cross and John Freeman. Both were declared "unfit to hold any municipal office" because of their refusal to tell where they got large sums of money.

HUGH FRAME DROWNS Former Emory Instructor Washed From Yacht at Seattle.

Hugh Frame, 31, former instructor at Emory university and widely known in Atlanta society, was drowned Sunday when washed overboard from a yacht near his home in Seattle, Wash. The body has not been recovered.

Mr. Frame left Atlanta for the west about four years ago. Prior to that time he served as instructor in transportation at Emory and participated in activities of the Emory Glee club. While residing in Atlanta Mr. Frame was a member of the Piedmont Driving club and other social organizations. He was a graduate of Harvard.

Mr. Frame is said to be survived by his parents, living in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and a sister in New York.

Earth Shock. New Orleans, October 8.—(AP)—The seismograph at Loyola university recorded earth shocks described by Father O. L. Abel as very severe beginning at 9:05 o'clock tonight and reaching a maximum at 9:10. The distance was estimated from 1,250 to 1,500 miles away, in the direction of Mexico.

CANADIAN SUFFERS LAPSE OF MEMORY AND LOSES $500

Pueblo, Colo., October 8.—(AP)—Harry Delvin, 33 years old, said to be the son of a wealthy Toronto, Canada, broker, today is trying to retrace his experiences that led up to his disappearance from Denver Friday and his discovery near here in an unconscious condition.

Found in a patch of weeds south of Lake Minnekaqua last night, it was not until late today that he was able to tell of his difficulties.

Delvin said that he must have been robbed of $500 in Canadian currency, his watch, valuable papers and all of his clothing. He wore an old suit of ill-fitting clothes when found. His crutches, which he has used since being injured in the world war, were found near where he was discovered.

CUBA SEEKS REPEAL OF PLATT AMENDMENT

Havana, October 8.—(AP)—Declaring that Cuba has outlived the usefulness of the Platt amendment, placed in the Cuban constitution almost 30 years ago through an act of the United States congress, President Machado today declared that Cuba would seek the repeal of the United States War Veterans' convention which opened here today.

Stating clearly that Cuba enjoys entire sovereignty, the president said that Cuban nationalism placed in the United States constitution almost 30 years ago through an act of the United States congress, President Machado today declared that Cuba would seek the repeal of the United States War Veterans' convention which opened here today.

Tracing the progress made by Cuba in the last 20 years, President Machado said that Cuba in fact had conquered her independence twice, the first by arms and the second by giving extraordinary proof of her capacity for self-government.

"Cuba is today one of the countries that most freely exercises its sovereignty in spite of interpretations that are made regarding the Platt amendment, causing the United States of America to feel that it existed, would be the negation of the principles contained in its declaration of independence, and the scope of some of its clauses determined by the working of the amendment could not be considered an obstacle."

Later he declared that "morally the amendment does not exist as it has been repealed in fact by the nationalism and virtue of the Cubans."

Gratitude to Cuba for its hearty reception, appreciation for the Cuban United States spirit of close cooperation and the hope that was now outlawed may forever remain outlawed were the keynote of an address by General John J. Gentry, commander of the United States War Veterans, in opening the convention.

The closely packed National theater, still ringing to the cheers that followed President Machado's welcoming address, resounded to the prayer for universal peace uttered by General Gentry, in his reply to the Cuban president.

Cuba was praised for its financial and economic advancement during the last 30 years. General Gentry extolled the people who had dropped the sword for the plow and the rifle for positions of state.

7,000 Veterans Present.

Approximately 7,000 veterans crowded the theater when the convention was opened.

Ovation greeted President Machado when he arrived at the theater. Twenty-two United States national and regimental flags borne by Spanish War Veterans formed an arcade from the sidewalk into the theater for the Cuban executive, his staff and members of his cabinet.

Business sessions took up the major part of the day but the veterans tonight will attend a grand ball at the National theater and specially arranged concerts at Havana's four principal plazas. The convention will close Friday.

The Platt amendment which was accepted by Cuba on June 12, 1901, as part of her constitution bound Cuba among other things not to incur debts her current revenues will not bear, to lease certain naval stations to the United States and established the right of the United States to intervene if necessary in the affairs of the island for the protection of Cuban independence, and the maintenance of a government adequate for the protection of life, property and individual liberty.

BAHAMA ISLANDERS ARE IN DIRE STRAITS

Boatmen Report Desperate Condition Left By Storm.

West Palm Beach, Fla., October 8.—(AP)—Hundreds of natives and the few white settlers at West End, Governors Harbor, Eight-Mile Rock and Light-house Point, in the northern Bahamas group, are in dire need as a result of the September hurricane, boatmen reaching the Palm Beach coast said today.

Medical assistance and clothing are the principal needs on the island, said the crew of one boat which returned last night from a relief trip to West End, having taken about 1,000 pounds of clothing and several dozen loaves of bread in a 28-foot boat, the only one available after the storm. Another boatload of supplies was made ready today by the boatmen, who stated they would try the trip again in the small craft, although a much larger boat was needed.

The clothing taken on the first voyage was supplied by the Salvation Army headquarters here, and the Salvation Army was outfitting the second expedition. A letter of gratitude to the Salvation Army was delivered from the islanders today. In the letter Magistrate F. H. Howe, colonel governor, expressed the appreciation of the West Enders for the aid.

American Red Cross officials here in charge of relief work in Florida have been advised of the situation around West End and have wired their general office at Washington to expedite the shipment of supplies. The frail shacks, which served as homes for the natives, were demolished, the three large piers were swept away, many boats tossed far back on dry land, crops almost entirely ruined and much of the land inundated, the boatmen told Red Cross officials. All the houses were destroyed.

The school-teacher at West End was quoted by the men as saying that he had direct information to the effect that the entire settlement around Governors Harbor had been wiped out.

WILLIAMS WILL FLY TO ROME WEDNESDAY

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., October 8.—(AP)—Roger C. Williams, veteran air pilot, announced tonight that he would take off at dawn Wednesday on a flight to Rome in a trans-Atlantic monoplane Columbia for a flight to Rome.

With him as navigator will be Pietro Bonelli, who was to have been navigator on Cesare Sabelbi's "Roma" on a New York-Rome flight. It is now known that Levine will accompany Williams on the flight.

Williams and Bonelli have been working with Sabelbi to make a flight in preparation for the Rome flight and on several occasions the pilot threatened to quit the crew because of the repeated delays. Today he and Bonelli definitely broke with Sabelbi, Williams said, and agreed to take the Columbia across.

James T. Reese went on trial on a charge of possessing and attempting to sell a quantity of morphine. Reese, who was caught by J. J. Higgins and two other narcotics inspectors in a cleverly arranged trap, chose to stand trial while Herbert McCready and W. W. Landford, jointly indicted with him, pleaded guilty. Their sentences were deferred pending outcome of Reese's case.

Charles Jones, alias J. C. Gentry, pleaded guilty to purchasing and possessing morphine and was sentenced to a year and a day in the federal penitentiary. His request that he be granted a little time before starting to serve his sentence was not granted by the court.

ARKANSAS GOVERNOR TO STUMP TENNESSEE

Little Rock, Ark., October 8.—(AP)—Governor Harvey Parnell, of Arkansas, will make eight speeches in Tennessee beginning October 22 in the interest of the Smith-Robinson ticket, a telegram from the national democratic speakers' bureau said today. The governor will make six speeches in Oklahoma next week.

The Tennessee dates as announced were: Knoxville, October 22; Bolivar, October 23; Selmer, October 24; Savannah, October 25; Decaturville and Parsons, October 26, and Camden and Big Sandy, October 27.

Agnes Scott Soph Class Play Wins Over Frash Stunt

BY LOUISE McDANIEL.

Decatur, Ga., October 8.—(Special).—"Silhouettes," presented by the sophomore class of Agnes Scott college, was the winner of the decision over "The Shaming of the Sheiks," the freshman production, in the annual stunt night—the climax of sophomore week—which was held Saturday night in the college gymnasium. The endless rivalry between the two classes was apparent in the themes of the two productions.

The sophomore stunt featured blackface comedy in its various settings. "The Shaming of the Sheiks," presented by the freshman class, compared the night sophomores to domineering sheiks of the east and the lowly freshmen to their numerous slaves.

Preceding the presentation of these stunts, the sophomores, wearing white and yellow—their class colors—formed a procession and entered the auditorium singing one of their pep songs. Immediately following came the freshmen, gaily dressed in their colors—blue and white—and submissively wearing their freshman caps. During the entire performance cheers and yells from these two enthusiastic groups filled the air and added to the feeling of rivalry that was ever present.

Members of the cast of the winning production, "Silhouettes," were: Dorothy Kettley, Dittie Winters, Mary Bryant Webb. The committee was composed of the following girls: Shirley McPhaul, chairman; writing, Katherine Morrow, Octavia Howard, Kitty Reid, Dittie Winters, Elvonne Winn, Wesa Chandler; scenery, Helen Friedman; properties, Gertrude Willoughby; costumes, Louise Ware.

The cast of the freshman stunt was composed of: Charlotte Teasley, Martha Williamson, Mary Page Vandevel, Jean Shaw, Mary Emma Ascher, Polly Wilson, Sara Lane Smith, Rose Henry, Lathmoeller, Mary Dunbar, Christiana Gray, Mary Miller, Emily Squires, Peggy Link, Florence Graham, Elizabeth Sken, Elizabeth Willingham, Virginia Gray, Downs Landford, Virginia Gray, Downs Landford, Virginia Gray, Downs Landford.

FOUR MEN PLEAD GUILTY TO DRUG ACT VIOLATIONS

Cases involving violation of narcotic laws consumed most of the time in Judge Sibley's federal court Monday.

James T. Reese went on trial on a charge of possessing and attempting to sell a quantity of morphine. Reese, who was caught by J. J. Higgins and two other narcotics inspectors in a cleverly arranged trap, chose to stand trial while Herbert McCready and W. W. Landford, jointly indicted with him, pleaded guilty. EFFRON'S Bigger and Better BARGAINS 57 Broad Street S. W.

HOOPER ALEXANDER TO ADDRESS RALLY OF AL SMITH FOES

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Harry Wright, chairman of the anti-Smith democratic party of Georgia, Monday announced that Hooper Alexander, recently nominated for the state legislature from DeKalb county, will deliver the principal address at a rally of partisans opposed to the election of the New York governor in Americus, October 10.

Mr. Wright's statement follows: "Prominent men and women in all sections of the state are besieging our office with requests for speakers. The record of Al Smith lends itself so readily to thoughtful and effective opposition that rapidly we are furnishing speakers from among volunteers who have placed their services at the disposal of the anti-Smith party."

"Judge W. A. Covington, former state legislator, will deliver two addresses tomorrow, having been invited to Cleveland in the afternoon and Lavonia in the evening. Hooper Alexander will speak at Americus October 10."

"Dr. Bascom Anthony, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church, at Thomaston, will speak the next week at Dublin, Nashville, Wrightsville, Summit and Swainsboro. Dr. Anthony advises our headquarters that next week he addressed enthusiastic audiences in Americus, Valdosta, Albany, Adel, Pellham, Cairo, Bainbridge and Cordale."

"Among those who are conducting speaking campaigns independent of our speakers' bureau are: Judge W. W. Sheppard, Savannah; Judge W. H. Fleming, Augusta, former congressman; A. M. Carpenter, Doraville, Ga.; Carl Hutcheson, Atlanta attorney; Mrs. W. W. Jarrell, Thomaston; Louis D. Newton, editor Baptist Christian Index, Atlanta."

"Mrs. Jarrell, the wife of a physician, is the mother of five children. She is driving her automobile through her county, speaking to audiences in every section."

MORPHINE SEIZED James Sears, 31, Jailed and $500 in 'Dope' Confiscated.

Three ounces of morphine valued at $500 were seized Monday night by Call Officers Cartwright and Higgins after Federal Narcotic agents Higgins and Goode had arrested James Sears, 31, of 75 East Harris street, where the dope was found hidden behind a biscuit pan hanging on the wall, it was reported.

The narcotic agents took Sears into custody at a Cain street garage immediately after he is alleged to have made a sale to another agent.

Sweetest Week In America's Year Now in Progress

Most people think of candy as a luxury pure and simple—something to be eaten of just they add unwanted pounds. "Nonsense," says Dr. Herman N. Brandesen, who is president of the American Health association and formerly health director of the sanitary district of Chicago. "How many mothers," Dr. Brandesen asks, "know that when they are feeding chocolate to their children they are feeding iron, lime, phosphorus, proteins, carbohydrates and fats?"

Dr. Brandesen's remarks are particularly worth noting at this time when the candy manufacturers and retailers of the whole country are cooperating in "candy week" October 7 to 13, ending with "sweetest day" Saturday, October 13, to bring home to people the value of candy, not only as a food but as a means of making people happy through gifts.

"Candy as a food is unsurpassed in value," it is stated. "Of course, like in all other foods or drinks, its misuse brings penalties. No one should attempt to live on candy alone, though doubtless the experiment could be worked out successfully if one were careful to select the proper kinds of candy. Nor should one overeat—of candy or anything else. On the other hand, there is a lot of nonsense talked and written about candy being bad for digestion and producing excessive fat. Because candy is highly concentrated food value, it's too excessive use can be harmful, but properly used, as a daily portion of one's diet, it is unsurpassed in nutritiousness."

"Candy week" and "sweetest day" are sponsored by Atlanta candy manufacturers and retail stores selling candy. The occasion gives everybody a chance to start using candy correctly—not merely as a luxury, but as the best of foods. The sentiment behind this national week devoted to candy is a fine one. Make somebody happy with a gift of candy is a splendid idea. The local organization is practicing what it preaches, too. Gifts of candy to charitable organizations throughout the country will be made on "sweetest day." Theaters of the city are cooperating. All in all, October 13 is going to be a very lucky day for a lot of people—particularly if everyone does his or her share and takes this as a reminder to make a present to someone of whom he is fond, of a box of candy.

William Z. Foster, Workers' (communist) party candidate for the presidency of the United States, will speak here at 8:30 o'clock tonight at the Labor temple. The communist candidate is on a nation-wide tour, having recently addressed meetings in Detroit, St. Paul, Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City and smaller communities.

Mr. Foster is a member of the central executive committee of the workers' party and attained prominence in the steel strike of 1919 and through his activities in the Trade Union Educational league, a left-wing organization which has been bitterly attacked by officials of the American Federation of labor. The meeting tonight is open to the public.

are sponsored by Atlanta candy manufacturers and retail stores selling candy. The occasion gives everybody a chance to start using candy correctly—not merely as a luxury, but as the best of foods. The sentiment behind this national week devoted to candy is a fine one. Make somebody happy with a gift of candy is a splendid idea. The local organization is practicing what it preaches, too. COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified cream that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up a system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

---One of 3 Cars and 31
Prizes Worth $8,000 to Be Awarded by The Atlanta Constitution.

The new Hudson makes a notable contribution to the growing vogue for cars of American design and efficiency to make swift use of the world's greatest highway system.

The new Hudson hood is long and high with a deep, slender radiator of new design. Headlamps, Colonial in character, are carried on a nicked cross bar and braced by vertical standards from the frame. Contrasting with the high radiator design, fenders with their aprons, sweep widely out in one clean arc to a beaded edge. A sculptured, fleet-winged figure caps the radiator. The distinctive character of this Hudson front end is carried back into the body with low, flat roof lines, with wide fenders sweeping back to meet short running boards and with wide windows of low oblong shape. Within, the body's manifest improvements in both comfort and appearance are evident. Rich wool and mohair are used for interior lining and upholstery fabrics. Hardware of special Colonial design, and smoking cases are pleasant accents in the scheme of decoration.

Improved in Strength and Style.

These new Hudson bodies are rich in appearance, sturdily built. Rear body panels are two large seamless panels, joined together at the belt moulding. Rugged steel and malleable brackets join side and cowl members rigidly to body and roof sills. Piano-type door hinges recessed into the body panels hold doors permanently in position.

Close the door of one of these standard bodies. It closes solidly without resonance, eloquent of the very substantial way in which these cars have been designed and constructed.

From these Hudson cars you may expect a phenomenal performance. Riding qualities obtained by Hudson's unique handling of long, semi-elliptic springs gives a sense of security to the flashing, speedy pick-up and high-speed performance of the Hudson high compression Super-Six power plant. A turn behind the wheel of these newest Hudsons will furnish you with a new, thrilling motoring experience. The body is finished in two pleasing tones of brown, the deep tones of the upper body being pleasantly relieved by light-colored window reveals and red striping.

Within, the exterior richness of this model is reflected in mohair and wool upholstery, a warm brown being used for the body linings, while the same background with a red figured pattern is used on the seats. Seat cushions are form-fitting, wide and comfortable. The front seat, of the davenport type, is adjustable fore and aft to fit the individual driver. Wide windows of oblong shape and deep reveals, lighter than the body color, and a custom touch to the exterior. Rear doors are of unusual width.

Detail by detail you will discover a new and finer beauty. Rich mohair and wool upholstery conceals all structural body parts. Even the windshield wiper is hidden away in the header above the glass. Window mouldings in burl walnut are provided with tension springs to prevent windows from rattling. Hardware of a special Colonial design with a brushed silver finish accents the decorative scheme.

The instrument panel has a new oblong grouping of instruments, the rim patterned to match the interior hardware. Besides the usual dials, the instrument group includes a motometer and gasoline gauge, and beneath a conveniently placed theft-resisting Electrolock ignition switch. A cylinder lock in the outside handle locks the front curb door, other doors being locked from within by pulling back the latch handles.

Hudson is also fitted with a new type of steering wheel, ebony finished to match the instrument panel. The new wheel has a narrow, hard rubber rim moulded with finger scallops over a continuous steel core in which rim and spokes are integral. Light, horn, spark and throttle controls are carried at the wheel center. The several pounds of added weight in this wheel effectively prevent small vibrations being transmitted from the road to the driver's hands.

An extended filler cap and adjustable tire carrier brackets permit a full width trunk to be mounted at the rear of coach and sedan.

Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson Will Make Tour of South On Smith Campaign Team

Wife of Artist, Former Langhorne Sister of Virginia, Will Aid Nominee in Social Events.

By MARTHA DALRYMPLE,
Associated Press Staff Writer.

Albany, N. Y., October 8.—(AP)—Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, wife of the artist and one of the campaign speakers of the democratic national committee, will accompany Governor Smith on his second campaign trip.

The announcement of the change of personnel in the governor's immediate party was made by the nominee's daughter, Mrs. John A. Warner, who said that Mrs. Gibson would meet the party in New York city where she will return the first of the week from a speaking tour through the south.

Mrs. Caroline O'Day, vice chairman of the New York state committee, who was a member of the party on the first trip, returned to her desk at headquarters in New York to find a two weeks' accumulation of work piled up for her and a speaking schedule that will keep her constantly on the go until the election.

Mrs. Gibson, who is an elector-at-large of New York and who was a delegate to the Houston convention, will take part in all the functions given in honor of the women of the party and probably will do the speech-making since neither the governor's wife nor daughter make any pretense at oratory.

Mrs. Warner said that she will continue her policy of making brief talks whenever she is called upon but will decline to enter the field of political speeches, leaving to Mrs. Gibson as she formerly did to Mrs. O'Day, to review the political situation for feminine audiences.

Last minute preparations for the trip are consuming the time of Mrs. Smith as she gets things at the executive mansion in order once more to leave for a period of at least two weeks.

W. C. T. U. ENDORSES HOOVER'S STAND ON PROHIBITION

Chicago, October 8.—(AP)—The Women's Christian Temperance Union issued a statement today from national headquarters declaring Herbert Hoover's speech at Elizabethton should remove all doubt as to his stand on prohibition.

"He wishes prohibition to succeed," said the statement. "It is repulsive to a man with his high ideals of the American family to speak of turning the home into the receiving end for government liquor bureau."

"The frail ideas of Governor Smith in favor of saving states' rights by permitting liquor to be sold in the wet areas fall with a thud before the calm and direct statement of Herbert Hoover that the eighteenth amendment is to protect the American home."

"The Women's Christian Temperance Union agrees with Secretary Hoover that there have been abuses under the eighteenth amendment connected with enforcement, but neither with Secretary Hoover nor with us is there any idea of compromising with the liquor interests under the guise of making the correct solution."

Supreme Court Will Pass on Provisions of Flexible Tariff

Washington, October 8.—(AP)—The supreme court consented today to take on the question whether the United States court of customs appeals has the right to review reports made to the president by the tariff commission under the flexible tariff law. The question was raised by the Bakelite corporation of New York city.

COLUMBIA REALTY CO.

DIRECTORS ARE SUED

'Gross Negligence' Charged
by Temporary Receiver
in $50,000 Action.

Charging that the defendant directors of the Columbia Trust and Realty company were "grossly negligent in the management and control of the business and permitted the president, J. T. Carson, and vice president, Andrew Calhoun, to operate and manage the business of the company with utter disregard of the company's welfare," Jerome Jones, Jr., temporary receiver for the company, Monday filed suit in Fulton superior court asking judgment against W. S. Richardson, R. J. Hudson, Gadsden E. Russell, Andrew Calhoun and M. C. Kiser, directors of the Columbia Trust and Realty company. The case has been set for a hearing Saturday.

Jones charges that the defendant directors are indebted to him in a sum in excess of $50,000. The petition sets out that the defendants damaged the company by passing a resolution cancelling an unpaid stock subscription of Calhoun's for $19,000 and accrued interest of $2,200, "at a time when the company was totally insolvent and said stock was worthless."

The defendants damaged the corporation in the sum of $40,055 by permitting the directors, officers and employees to run up accounts on account of insurance in large amounts, Jones alleges.

Overdrawn Accounts Alleged.

The petitioner alleges that the defendants permitted officers and employees to become overdrawn with the company to the amount of $14,834.36 as of September 30, 1927, and that the defendants permitted affiliated companies, controlled by the president and vice president, J. T. Carson and Andrew Calhoun, to make advances to themselves, which totaled $3,826.22 as of September 30, 1927.

The defendants further damaged the company by permitting the officers, at a time when the company was totally insolvent, to purchase 40 shares of the outstanding capital stock, then belonging to Arnold Broyles, for $8,106.43, "said stock at that time being totally worthless," Jones alleges.

Jones charges on information and belief that during 1925 and 1926 the company diverted approximately $25,000 collected by it for insurance agencies and landlords to purposes other than those for which the money was collected, and that as a result of such actions the affairs of the company became deeply involved, and it became necessary for the company to borrow money with which to pay obligations of this character. In order to raise the necessary money, the defendants purported to pledge all the assets of the company to repayment of the loans, and the alleged misappropriation of the funds was not for the benefit of the company and stockholders, Jones states in the petition.

Kiser's Alleged Indebtedness.

The petition alleges on information and belief that Kiser is indebted to the temporary receiver for $10,000, as Kiser bought 200 shares of the capital stock of the company on May 27, 1925, and never paid for the par value $20,000 stock more than $10,000 in property at a reasonable valuation.

Jones alleges also on information and belief that each of the defendants executed a promissory note for $5,000 to Ashby E. Hill in return for which Hill loaned the company $15,000, which was secured by a pledge of 350 shares of the preferred capital stock of the Cumberland Realty & Loan company of a par value of $35,000, and 350 shares of the no-par value common stock of the Cumberland company. Jones sets out that the company had no right to pledge its property for repayment of the money, and that the pledge of stock and real estate is totally void as against the petitioner.

The suit was filed by Sutherland & Tuttle as attorneys for Jones.

SMITH TO SPEAK IN INDIANAPOLIS ON OCTOBER 20

Indianapolis, Ind., October 8.—(AP) Governor Alfred E. Smith, democratic nominee for president, is expected to speak in Indianapolis Saturday, October 20, it was announced at democratic state headquarters today.

FARM LEADERS ASK BIG APPROPRIATION FOR FARM RESEARCH

Washington, October 8.—(AP)—Chester Gray, representing the American Farm Bureau Federation; Fred Breckman, of the National Grange, and a number of other representatives of agricultural organizations called upon President Coolidge today to urge him to recommend to congress the appropriation of $5,000,000 for agricultural research by the agriculture department.

They said the president replied that in principle he was in favor of their request, but that such an appropriation would have to be fitted in with the general budget system.

MEXICAN REBELS KILL 6 SOLDIERS IN AN ATTACK

Mexico City, October 8.—(AP)—Dispatches from Huatama, state of Michoacan, today said that Lieutenant Adrian Gastilejos, four soldiers and two volunteers were killed when a small guerrilla force resisted an attack of 200 insurgents on Friday. The insurgent casualties were believed to be heavy, but they could not be determined since they carried off their dead and withdrew before reinforcements arrived.

A young woman was killed by a stray bullet. The insurgents were commanded by Manuel Ocampo and Simo Cortes.

Dispatches from Oaxaca stated that a business man had been killed during a combat there and government offices were looted.

SENATOR MOSES WAXES SARCASTIC ABOUT DEMOCRATS

New York, October 8.—(AP)—Senator George H. Moses, of New Hampshire, vice chairman of the eastern republican advisory committee, said today that Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, had withdrawn from the political debate the two senators were to have had here next Sunday evening.

The democratic, said Senator Moses, attempted to substitute Claude Bowers, keynote speaker at the Houston convention, but Mr. Bowers had withdrawn, too.

"I don't know whether the democrats are calling for volunteers or getting out a draft," remarked Moses.

Rain Halts World Series; Hoyt and Sherdel Pitch Today

Yankees Set To Establish Winning Mark

Landis Calls Game When Morning Downpour Inundates Ball Park.

BY GRANTLAND RICE.

St. Louis, Mo., October 8.—(Special.)—The Yankees put on their fourth world series offensive tomorrow afternoon, and if it doesn't rain again and the Cardinals don't improve 1,000 per cent the curtain will ring down on the show by nightfall.

The all-night rain followed by a heavy morning shower left the Cardinal halffield in perfect condition for Johnny Weismuller and Gertrude Ederle. In spite of the sun that soon broke through the clouds, the outfield was in no shape for a ball game.

So the charging Yankees were delayed a day in their efforts to crack all world's series records by cleaning up another series in four straight starts.

The Cardinals were groggy and on the run after the third tussle, and this extra day of rest and contemplation may swing them back into line again. It is almost a certainty that Waite Hoyt would have hung another wreath of raspberry blossoms on the bowed necks today if the rain had not interfered. For the National league champions were a worn-out, bedraggled and discouraged lot after they left the ball park Sunday afternoon, all ready for the guillotine; but the day's rest may give them a chance to get back on their feet.

There will be no change in the pitching assignments for the game Tuesday. Hoyt, one of the great right-handers of baseball, will move out against Bill Sherdel again, and the odds all favor Hoyt to win. He had the Cardinals all taped and measured in his opening salute, and he is primed to mow them down again.

So the sole chance for a Cardinal victory in this fourth battle is a reversal of the trend of the last three.

Hal McKenzie Second In Class "A" Shoot

W. E. Rape, Chattanooga, Carries Off First Honors at Annual Indian Shoot at Atlanta Gun Club.

BY BEN COTHMAN.

The "Pull-Bang-Dead" boys—something like 60 of 'em—began their noise-making Monday at the Atlanta Gun club and will be at it through Wednesday afternoon when the event—with a name as long as any Indian name—the Sixth Annual Pow Wow of the Southern Indians, comes to a close.

A big, bulky brave from Chattanooga, W. E. Rape, missed five out of 200 targets in the main event of Monday's program and his 195 brought him the championship in class "A."

He didn't, however, have the highest score as D. H. McCulloch, a long, lanky fellow from Charlotte, smashed 196 targets to southerners out of a possible 200, which anyone can tell you is right good shooting. This act of McCulloch's won him first place in the class "B" shooters.

Hal McKenzie upheld the Atlanta tribe in class "A," placing second with 192. T. Pasco Rodgers came through for second place in the class "C" race, breaking 190 out of 200. These were the only Atlantaers placing in the class events.

Mrs. Walter P. Andrews, of Atlanta, one of the best feminine shots in the country, blazed and banged away at 200 of the clay skimmers and broke all but eight of them to had 96x100 on the morning round but ran into trouble during the afternoon and missed one bird at each trap during this period of firing. Her morning round showed perfect 25's at three traps and then a disastrous occurrence on the third, where she missed four out of 25.

W. E. Rape, who won the class "A" trophy, had a fairly consistent day at the traps. On his first 100 he missed but one. He faltered in the afternoon, however, turning in two 25's, 24 at the second trap and 22 at the third. Arthur Casculen, the rotund, genial professional from Tampa, was on hand but had an unruly gun to con-ted with, turning in 184. Arthur, however, was hitting 'em hard and will probably have a better round today.

Championship Today.

This morning the Indians start out on a rather ambitious program, beginning with the registered Indian singles championship, to be shot out at 200 targets, going on into the last 25 pair of the doubles begun Monday and winding up with the international 100, consistently taking shots at 20 targets from each of the following distances: 16 yards, 18 yards, 20 yards and 22 yards, closing out with 10 pairs of doubles to make up the 100 targets.

The winner of this international affair will receive the Robert Fulton hotel challenge cup, in addition to the cash prizes which amateur trapshooters can accept without any qualms as to their amateur status.

200 Singles.

Class A—W. A. Rape, Chattanooga, 195; McKenzie, 192; Alford, 185; Bush, 179.

Class D—Ulrich, Jacksonville, 179; Brannon, 177; J. O. Rodgers, Greenwood, S. C., 172; Webb, Chattanooga, 168; Brantly, 165; Mrs. Alford, 163; Lawson, Greensboro, Ala., 162; Belamy, Durham, N. C., 158; King, Bristol, Tenn., 144.

Fowler Low In J. C. Meet; Score Is 67

Medalist Shoots Great Game in Qualifying Round of Fall Tourney.

Leo Fowler, one of the best young golfers in Atlanta, added another chapter to his string of accomplishments when he turned the 18 holes at East Lake in 67 strokes. Par for the difficult course is 71.

The score gave Fowler low qualifying score in the qualifying round of the annual fall tournament of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Fowler had a 33 going out, and a 33 coming in. Ed Jarvis and George Yancy made the round with the par-breaker.

Match play starts today in all five flights. The first match gets under way at 7:30 a. m. and other pairs start out every few minutes thereafter until 8:50 when the first pair, Fowler and Jay Smith starts in the championship flight.

Scoring Stars Of Conference Bob Up Again

Zobel, Thibadeau, Lumpkin, Justus, Vines Are Few Who Show Well.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

High-powered scoring stars bobbed up on every side in Southern Conference football games Saturday—dashing the early-season pessimism that the thrilling scenes of a past year, enacted by Bill Spears, Jack McDowell and others had faded with their graduation.

Now come new names and less familiar faces. Yet, they packed thrills galore into early season starts. There was Eddie Zobel, the little halfback of South Carolina, who slipped under passes against Virginia with amazing agility and also showed a knack at doing many other things.

Thibadeau Stars.

A sophomore, Thibadeau, of Washington and Lee, stepped off long gains against North Carolina State and will bear watching Saturday when the Generals tackle the Kentucky Wildcats. He also punts well and passes fairly.

Bill Banker, of Tulane, started the season with old-time vigor, slipping through Mississippi's Aggies 80 yards for one touchdown Saturday. The blonde, halfback, is one of the fastest backs in the conference, starting on the track as well as gridiron.

Georgia Tech presented a new star to add to the constellation, Mizell, Thompson, Randolph. The new recruit is Luther Lumpkin, a knee-lifting, piling fullback, who began his first game Saturday by crashing through Virginia Military institute 14 yards for a touchdown.

The veteran Ward, of North Carolina, showed Maryland his heel and hand at College Park. He ran himself to a touchdown and also "triple-threatened" well.

Justus Another Hero.

Justus, Clemson back, was another hero of the opening day. It was the veteran ace who ripped Auburn's forward line for a 6 to 0 victory in the "loveliest village."

The great Jimmy Armistead, leading point scorer of the nation in 1927, proved the leader in Vanderbilt's triumph over Colgate. Armistead smashed over one of the touchdowns and was a tower of defensive strength as well as handing passing and punting duties for the day.

Alabama has a whole galaxy of stand-outs at the start. Deal Vines, of Hoin, Bradford, all to be heard from, while on the line Captain Early Smith went for one of the touchdowns against University of Mississippi.

Flippin, of Virginia, end and all-around track athlete, sprang one of the runs of the season when he raced back the opening kickoff against South Carolina for a touchdown.

In short, the great Spears, McDowell, Estes, Cohen, Middlekauff, Shiver and Nash have passed but the new crop has thrills galore stored away for 1928.

Stand By Wins Race at Jamaica

New York, October 8.—(AP)—Frank Bray's Stand By made a show of his field in the Lynbrook claiming stakes at Jamaica today, winning by four lengths with Millhand second and Mordrom third. Stand By, at 7 to 1, ran the five and a half furlongs in 1:07 flat and earned $3,675 for his owner.

Zest, the favorite at 13 to 5, was among the also runs. Seabright, at 25 to 1, took the sixth race.

The $1,500 Blandenburg handicap at Laurel for all ages, six furlongs, saw Knapsack win in a sensational upset. Knapsack, paying $39.60 to win, nosed out Prince of Wales in a grueling drive. The time was 1:12 2-5.

Hal Price Hendley's Mad Ploy won the Larchmont farm purse at Latonia with Cartago, owned by R. E. Leichter, second and the Everglade stables' Dunmore third. The winner ran the mile and 70 yards in 1:42 4-5.

E. Shropshire rode Canaan of the Lemar stock farm to victory in the Marquette purse, feature of the opening card at Hawthorne. Canaan covered the mile and a sixteenth in 1:44 3-5 to win from Chicago, the odds-on favorite, by four lengths. Canaan paid $7.70 in the mutuels.

"Bucky" Harris Visits Detroit; Refuses To Talk

Detroit, October 8.—(AP)—Stanley (Bucky) Harris, former manager of the Washington Senators, who it has been rumored may succeed George Moriarity as pilot of the Detroit Baseball club, was in Detroit for a few hours today but declined to reveal the purpose of his visit.

Frank Navin, president of the Detroit club, denied he had conferred with Harris and refused to discuss the report that Moriarity may be removed.

Harris checked out of the hotel tonight and was thought to have left Detroit.

Ray Quits Amateur Ranks; Signs Contract

New York, October 8.—(AP)—Joie Ray turned away today from amateur athletics with its rewards of medals, cups and watches and set about earning his living as a professional marathon star. Joie signed a contract with Tex Rickard to race El Ouafi, the Algerian Arab Olympic champion, in Madison Square Garden October 21.

Ray, American mile champion for many years, has run only four marathons and those at the close of his spectacular amateur career. He raced third in his first start at Boston last April, won the Long Beach grind, was fifth in the Olympics and first in Ireland's Tailteann games.

Western Heights Wins First Cage Game, 61-29

The lid was kicked off the local basketball season Monday night when the Western Heights (five swamped the West Atlanta Baptists on the English Avenue school court, 61-29.

The Heights boys had it all over their opponents and hooped points almost at will. Their attack was led by Nichols, who found the rings for a total of 23 points. Moon, with 18 points and Bishop with 10 counters, were high-point men for the Baptists.

YANKS AND RECORDS

Ruth and Company Still Crashing Marks of Others and Appear Headed for More Glory During Series

St. Louis, Mo., October 8.—(AP)—Any world's series the New York Yankees and their head man, Babe Ruth, participate in is bound to be a record-breaker. The current affair is no exception, with at least a dozen records shattered so far and a half-dozen more in prospect, not the least of which would eventuate with another four-straight triumph for the disabled soldiers of Gotham.

The Bambino and his hitting partner, Lou Gehrig, also have designs on the high individual batting mark for one series. For three games their marks were .636 and .556, respectively, with Ruth especially having a good chance to displace the record of .545 made by Sergeant Hank Gowdy while catching for the Braves in their gallop over the Athletics in 1914.

A record players' pool of well in excess of $400,000, a mark never before reached, seems assured. The "pot" for the world's series performers, as well as for the second, third and fourth clubs in each league, was up to $332,309.52 for the first three games. Since $91,111.50 was added to the pool yesterday it would take half a majority of this amount today to beat the record of $309,440.67, made last year.

Frankie Frisch and Ruth started this series tied for the record of hitting .300 or better in four championship frays and they may still be tied, even though the Babe has outshone the Cardinal second sacker at the bat so far. Frankie leads the inconspicuous Cardinal attack with a mark of .333.

Tom Zachary, who has won three world series games and never lost one, is a modest chap. Before the series opened the left-hander was approached by a friend at the Yankee stadium.

"How are you, Zach?" "As good as I ever was, not that that's saying much."

It was saying a good deal in the third game if the testimony of Cardinal batsmen may be accepted as authoritative.

Miller Huggins continued to call on his defensive strategy, sending Leo Durocher to second base in place of Tony Lazzeri when the Yanks forged ahead in the third game. It worked, for after Hafey and Holm singled in succession in the eighth, Durocher took Koenig's toss on Wilson's roller and completed a lightning double play. Lazzeri's ailing shoulder has slowed him up to a walk on double plays.

Chicago's City Series Is Even As Sox Win, 7-1

Adkins Beats Bush, Root and Carlson in Fourth Contest.

Chicago, October 8.—(AP)—Playing with their backs to the wall, the White Sox today evened up the series for the city baseball championship, defeating the Cubs, 7 to 1, in the sixth game at Comiskey park before 10,000 fans, the smallest crowd of the series.

To Grady Adkins, White Sox rookie hurler, who a year ago was cutting meat in a butcher shop down in Arkansas, goes much of the credit for the victory although his mates exhibited a punch that hammered three Cub hurlers for 14 hits, including triples by Shires and Hunnefeld.

Adkins struck out six of the Meadley crew and gave only six widely scattered hits.

The seventh and deciding game will be played at Comiskey park tomorrow. Score by innings: R. H. E. Sox 000 001 600—1 6 1 Cubs 001 000 000—7 14 2 Batteries: Bush, Root, Carlson and Hartnett; Adkins and Berg.

Valdosta Drilling.

Valdosta, Ga., October 8.—(Special.)—After the 12-to-0 victory over the Silverstar team last week, the Valdosta Wildcats are being hammered back into shape for the game this week with the Bainbridge eleven.

Georgia, Yale Teams Clash At New Haven

Many Other Choice Games Booked for Week-End in Conference.

Rooters To Travel With Georgia Team

Those followers of the Red and Black of the University of Georgia who travel to New Haven for the game with Yale next Saturday will go over the Seaboard Air Line with the Georgia team itself.

The team will travel on the Atlanta Special, new limited recently put into operation by the Seaboard. The train will leave Atlanta Wednesday night at 7:25, reaching New York 24 hours later.

Many extra Pullman sleepers have already been added to this train for the exclusive use of the team and followers from Athens. The alumni and others desiring to travel on same train with team should phone Seaboard offices, Walnut 2708 or Walnut 5018 for reservations.

The football bumps are coming hard and early this season for many southern conference machines and Monday several were checking up the casualties while others were buoyed high by decisive victories.

Alabama, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Tulane, Washington and Lee, Clemson and South Carolina were in the fore in the conference standing, each having registered a victory to start the season, while on the other hand Maryland, Virginia, Virginia Military Institute, University of Mississippi, Mississippi A. & M., North Carolina State and Auburn were one down at the beginning.

The others yet have their first intra-conference game to play.

Six conference games will hold the boards this week while several other eleven will step out in major inter-sectional clashes.

Friday, Clemson, undefeated yet, will meet North Carolina State at Florence, S. C., with considerable regional interest worked up. Justice of the Tiger backfield, will be

Emory Sophs Win; Frosh Take Game

Although outplayed in every department, a fighting sophomore team at Emory downed the Soph Meds, 7 to 6. Taking advantage of a fumble in the third quarter, the Sophs scored their lone touchdown on an 80-yard run by Buck Jaudon. Lange's placekick gave them the deciding point.

Led by Kels Boland, former Georgia fullback, the Meds presented a team composed almost entirely of old college stars.

In the first quarter they drove down the field for a touchdown after an exchange of punts, the only time they punted the entire game. Rice, Armstrong and Boland shared equally in this drive. A pretty pass, Boland to Rice, finally netted the six points. But the try for goal was missed.

In the morning game the freshmen promised trouble for someone by landing a 13-0 kicking to the Junior-Senior team.

Hagen's Golf Purses Attached for Debts

Baltimore, October 8.—(AP)—All earnings of Walter Hagen, defending champion of the professional golf association, in the title tournament which ended here Saturday, were attached today by a court order served on the Baltimore Country club, over whose course the tournament was held.

The attachment was obtained by H. B. Hargens, Baltimore attorney, on behalf of two New York firms which claim debts of $700.45 and $288.37, said to be owed them by the former pro champion.

Hagen was defeated in the quarter-final round by Leo Diegel, who won the title in the finals against Al Espinosa, of Chicago.

Coaches Drill Teams in East For Week-End

Yale Spends Day Throwing Passes; Many Changes Seen in Squads.

New York, October 8.—(AP)—The football east nursed its bruises, mended its shattered hopes or dwelt pleasantly on its successes today. Most coaches gave their squads nothing but easy workouts after last Saturday's competitive struggles and so there was little for the footballers to do but think.

With Johnny Hoben, veteran quarterback, on the sidelines, Yale spent the day throwing forward passes and punting.

Arnold Horween let his Harvard team off easy, but plans scrimmages tomorrow and Wednesday for the forthcoming battle with North Carolina.

Roper Makes Changes.

With Virginia the next obstacle Bill Roper replaced Mestres and Leville with Caldwell and Eyles at the guard positions and Lou Young at Pennsylvania pulled something of a surprise when he sent Al Ratowski, a back, into one of the wings, the Red and Blue's chief weak spots.

Gil Dobie paid little attention to his Cornell varsity, devoting his time to the reserves. Coach Earl Abel told his Colgate squad to forget its defeat by Vanderbilt and concentrate on the fray with Virginia Poly. Colgate has an old score to settle with the Virginians who last year gave the Maroon the first defeat it ever suffered at home.

Many Changes.

A light Navy practice saw Bill Ingram make a number of changes in his twice-defeated first team. The midshipmen are developing a strong offensive in preparation for Notre Dame at Chicago.

"Bill" Jones sent his Army squad through signal practice, some limbering-up exercises and pointed out the mistakes that nearly cost the Cadets the Southern Methodist game.

Pitt's Panthers heard Jack Sutherland say that they needed a better forward passing game if they were to get by West Virginia.

Courtney Wins.

Cleveland, Ohio, October 8.—(AP)—George Courtney, middleweight from Tulsa, Okla., was awarded the decision by Referee Matt Brook over Jack McVey, New York negro, in their 12-round bout at public hall tonight. The Oklahoma boy weighed in at 162 and McVey at 166 3-4.

The Loud Boys.

EVERY gun shoot, whether it be of the Indian variety, such as the one now in progress at the Atlanta Gun club, or any other species, has its star squad. Sometimes this squad breaks more targets than any other and sometimes its interest to the gallery lies in some other accomplishment. The latter is true of the squad we refer to. Let us call it the Whooping squad for want of a better name.

This is the Indian shoot and this squad is trying valiantly to live up to traditions of the aborigines for which the shoot is named. From first post to last they call "pull" or "Yeow" more loudly than any others at the shoot and get their targets faster than any others. The members of this squad are as follows: Dr. H. N. Alford, president of the Atlanta Gun club; Inman Gray, who calls more loudly and shoots just about as fast as Dr. Alford; Dr. J. Q. Brantley, who calls "Yeow" to bring out the targets; Homer Freeman, the shooting policeman who squats when he shoots, and T. Pasco Rodgers, a bit slower and not as loud as the rest, but a good shoot for all that.

There were better scores in the class singles than this squad produced, but no squad had any more fun or furnished any more thrills for the gallery than this one.

Mrs. Alford Returns.

A VERY pretty member has returned to the already pulchritudinous feminine squad at the Indian shoot. She is Mrs. H. N. Alford, returning to the traps for the first time in four years. Mrs. Alford broke 163x200 in the class singles and her performance was particularly good in view of the fact that she has not been at the traps for a period of four years. She shoots very steadily and her timing shows a natural ability to shoot that is possessed by very few. If Mrs. Alford keeps at the game this time she should go far in her class.

Mrs. W. P. Andrews, one of the finest feminine shots in the nation today, continued her steady march when she broke 192x200 to take third place in Class B. Mrs. J. C. Wright has not been shooting much of late and her scores Monday were not as good as usual.

Mrs. Andrews is one of the most energetic shooters in the country, man or woman. When this shoot is over she will have shot about 4,500 registered single targets this year and had an average up to the beginning of this shoot of .91. She has been shooting five years next month and is estimated that in these five years she has shot at more than 60,000 targets registered and otherwise. Slight of frame, Mrs. Andrews does not appear to be able to stand the pounding of a 12-gauge shotgun loaded with the heaviest possible loads all day long, but she does that very thing and finishes the day fresher than most of the men. She is truly a wonderful athlete and a very fine woman in the bargain.

Too Fast for Argument.

THE boys are sitting here now wishing for a 10th-second stop watch with which to settle an argument. Homer Freeman, W. E. Rape, of Chattanooga, and Dr. Alford are shooting at the doubles and the argument concerns their comparative speed at the doubles.

Personally we believe that such an argument could never be settled with any stop watch, because these birds don't take one-tenth of a second between the two targets. It seems impossible that any man could pull the trigger on his gun that fast without mentioning the necessity of changing angles and finding the second target after breaking the first. Of these three shooters Dr. Alford is consistently the best doubles shot, but there is little difference in their speed.

Coach Resigns Post At Loyola, Chicago

Chicago, October 8.—(AP)—Roger Kiley, former Notre Dame star, has resigned as head football coach at Loyola university, Chicago, to return to the practice of law.

Daniel Lamont, who has been his assistant, will have charge of the Loyola eleven until a successor is chosen.

Wisconsin Coach, Harry Vail, Dies

Madison, Wis., October 8.—(AP)—Harry E. "Dad" Vail, coach of the University of Wisconsin since 1911 and formerly nationally known as a sculler, died today at Gagetown, New Brunswick, according to word received by university authorities.

Vail, who was 67, had been ill for some time.

He was identified all his life with water sports and in his youth was one of the leading scullers of the country. A native of Canada, he ran his first race at 15 and at 38 reached the climax of his career as a sculler when he defeated Bedford Brown.

Tulane Plays To Be Studied By Tech Team

Grey Devils Will Work Out With Greenie Signals at Flats Today.

Coach Alexander sent his charges through a light workout Monday afternoon on Grant field, concentrating on the remedying of the fumbling habit which proved so costly against the Flying Squadron in Saturday's fray. The boys did not take kindly to treatment, however, and balls were bouncing around at odd intervals during the session following a slip on some erring back's part.

Setting-up work and signal drill were the only dishes on the Jackets' menu, and this latter portion saw some poor work with the oval. The best of the Tech stable of ball-toters permitted the piskin to slip through their clutches with fearful regularity. To help matters, passes from center and from the quarterbacks to the carriers were going astray. Fumbles had a big part in holding the Techsters back Saturday, and with the opposition growing tougher as time goes on, games which might possibly have been won will be lost unless this habit is broken now.

Meanwhile the Grey Devils were getting a lesson from Captain Robinson, who was at New Orleans for the weekend, in Tulane plays. The big squad will get its first look at these plays this afternoon.

Petrel - Loyola Tickets on Sale Today

Tickets for the Oglethorpe-Loyola (New Orleans) football game at Spiller's park Saturday will go on sale today at Marshall & Reynolds, Peachtree and Broad.

All reserved seats tickets will cost $2, according to Frank Anderson, athletic director at Oglethorpe. Seats will be offered in the east stands for $1.

Coach Schunnessy, of Loyola, was formerly head coach at Tulane, and is bringing to Atlanta the team that two weeks ago almost defeated the famous Notre Dame eleven, losing the game in the last few minutes of play on a fumble. The final score was 12 to 6. Bucky Moore, halfback at Loyola is considered one of the fastest men in southern football, according to M. Anderson.

Mother Defends Action by Helen

Berkeley, Calif., October 8.—(AP)—Mrs. C. A. Wills, mother of Helen Wills, world's champion woman tennis player, today deplored publicity given her daughter's cancellation of a widely advertised exhibition match at the Los Angeles Tennis club last week.

Mrs. Wills declared that her daughter played a trial set at the Berkeley club Friday afternoon and found that blistered feet, caused by playing on hard courts after a season on soft grass courts still gave her trouble and made it impossible for her to play in the programed Los Angeles games.

Miss Wills telegraphed the club Friday morning cancelling her engagement. Mrs. Wills said, and that afternoon's trial on the Berkeley courts proved conclusively that it would be inadvisable for her to appear.

DRIBBLE HIT IN BASKETBALL RULE CHANGES

New York, October 2.—(AP)—Although not going so far as to restrict the dribble to a single bounce, an action which was taken last year and then rescinded after a storm of controversy, the new basketball rules announced today for 1928-29 have considerable to say about regulating this spectacular feature of the game.

A new clause is added (rule 15, section 9, under the head of personal fouls), which reads:

"A player shall not trip, charge or push an opponent whether or not either player has possession of the ball. If a dribbler charges into an opponent, or makes personal contact with an opponent, without an apparent effort to avoid such contact, a personal foul shall be called on the dribbler."

"If, despite the dribbler's effort to avoid contact, personal contact ensues, either player, or both, may be guilty; but the greater responsibility is on the dribbler if he tries to dribble on an opponent who is in his path."

This is designed to "emphasize the responsibility of the dribbler in connection with the fouls resulting from the dribble," says Oswald Tower, Andover, Mass., official interpreter of the rules.

"Most of those who advocate restriction of the dribble," he comments, "think that the dribble is used too much or that it is impossible to check satisfactorily the many fouls resulting from its use. The former is a matter of coaching; the latter is a problem for the rules and officials to solve."

"If the dribbler's path is blocked, he is expected to pass or shoot."

Among other changes are provisions designed to penalize "guarding from the rear" by a personal foul, making it illegal for a player to capitalize his great height by tapping the ball and then catching it on two successive jump balls, and stating that "an unguarded player may hold the ball indefinitely in the court, but as soon as an opponent takes possession of the ball by (say within a yard of the player with the ball), the latter must get the ball into play."

Tech, Tulane Play; Georgia, Yale Meet

Tulane and Georgia Tech will probably furnish the feature combat of the week within the conference. Both displayed great power in winning Saturday's games and will meet at New Orleans.

Billy Banker, blond halfback, will match speed with the redoubtable Thompson in this affair.

Washington and Lee will be trying to make it two straight conference victories by defeating the Kentucky Wildcats at Lexington, Ky. It will be the first game within the organization this season for Harry Gannaway's eleven.

The Crimson Tide of Alabama will be at Crimfield, Miss., engaging Mississippi A. & M.'s battered team with Wallace Wade's men hopeful of adding another victory to an already impressive start.

Bob Neyland's Tennessee Volunteers, starting the season with almost new eleven, will try to add a second victory by defeating the Kentucky Wildcats at Lexington, Ky. It will be the first game within the organization this season for Harry Gannaway's eleven.

Auburn's Plainsmen, minus an offense so far, will try to add a second victory by defeating the Kentucky Wildcats at Lexington, Ky. It will be the first game within the organization this season for Harry Gannaway's eleven.

In the inter-sectional lists, Georgia will be carrying another superb team to New Haven, Conn., where North Carolina will be carrying apparently the greatest team in years to Cambridge to meet Harvard and follow the latter's lead in the hopes of conquest; Virginia, not downhearted from the South Carolina defeat, will be trying to beat Princeton; Frank Foster and Mattson, Kentucky Poly backs, will charge Colgate with hopes of another victory and Vanderbilt will make its annual trek to Dallas to play the University of Texas.

The other conference members will be contesting the following: Louisiana State will be playing Louisiana College, Sewanee tackles Transylvania and Virginia Military Institute draws Roanoke as an opponent.

In the S. I. A. A. Oleshoor plays Loyola at New Orleans and Birmingham-Southern will be playing Chattanooga in the outstanding games. Both the Moccasins and Panthers have made fine showings so far, the latter having won several having registered victories over both Auburn and Mississippi.

BULLDOGS TO LEAVE FOR VALE WEDNESDAY.

Athens, Ga., October 2.—Some 30 or 32 Georgia Bulldogs will carry the Red and Black colors into New Haven, where the team leaves Athens Wednesday night at 9 o'clock and arrive in New York some 24 hours later. Thursday night will be spent at the Vanderbilt hotel in New York and on Friday morning at 10 o'clock the team departs for New Haven, which is about a two-hour ride from New York. That afternoon they will hold a workout in the Yale bowl.

Among other things Harry Mehre said this afternoon that he knew very little more about the team than when they scrimmaged the freshmen. No line could be gained on the players when they swamped Mercer Saturday because the opposition was so weak that the participants were not forced to exert themselves to win, 52 to 0.

"Weakest Mercer team I have seen in the five years that I have been here," was the way the Georgia head coach put it.

Only a light workout was waiting for the Bulldogs candidates when they went down to Sanford field Monday afternoon, but a hard scrimmage is slated for both the Georgia and Western day, the last two before the Georgians meet their stiffest test of the season.

WITH US TONIGHT

Tonight at the City Auditorium this playful looking little fellow will be seen in action against Mike Romano in a one-hour tussle on John Contos' opening mat show of the season. His name is Abe Kaplan and he tips the beam at the 200-pound mark. Kaplan is a newcomer to Atlanta, but is said to be one of the leading wrestlers in the business, and proclaims himself Jewish champion.

Three Bouts To Open Mat Season Tonight

Plenty of Action Expected From Matches at Auditorium; Kotsornaros in Feature Tussle.

Arrival of the pugnaic George Kotsornaros, the fast-working Greek heavyweight and moving picture actor, by airplane Tuesday from New Orleans, was to complete the cast in town for the fourth season of wrestling to be inaugurated tonight in colorful fashion in the auditorium tonight by John Contos.

Kotsornaros was scheduled to take off from New Orleans Tuesday morning and arrive here a few hours later. He is expected to make his debut in the wrestling ring at 10 o'clock tonight, when he will meet a challenger in the person of a wrestler named Dick Davis.

Kotsornaros is a native of Greece and has been wrestling for many years. He is a professional wrestler and has been in the business for a long time. He is a very strong and fast wrestler and is expected to be a big draw for the show.

ATLANTA U. TEAM WORKS FOR HORNETS

A hard week of work is ahead for the "Crimson Hurricane" football team of Atlanta university in preparation for the game with the strong Alabama State Normal "Hornets."

Coach Aiken and his husky warriors took on the 24th infantry eleven last Saturday, in Columbus, and the team appears to be in good condition with a few injuries.

Atlanta university will make its debut on a local field for the season Saturday. The Alabama outfit battled the famous Tuskegee team to a 0-0 tie at the end of the 1927 season last year.

McPherson, all-American; Wiggins, all-American; Pierce, all-American; Slaughter, all-American; Jeff Lamant, all-American, and several others who have won the highest honors on the gridiron, will be seen in action for the first time this year. Chief Aiken, entering his sixth year as head coach of Atlanta university, has developed more all-American material than any other colored coach in the South.

The Hurricane line will average around 185 pounds per man and is said to be the strongest forward wall in the South. The backfield is made up of promising players.

Coach Walker, backfield coach of Atlanta university and former Morris Brown university member, replaces the mighty "Whirlwind" Johnson, who will enter medical school. This lad is a former Lincoln university athlete and has been a great asset to the coaching staff.

A hard scrimmage is booked for today. No spectators will be allowed to enter the field. All the workouts will be shrouded in secrecy the balance of the season.

markable performance by Sherdel, who, in some way, discover the proper handouts for Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, who have made almost as much of the game as the Yankees.

It is almost impossible to estimate the damage that Ruth and Gehrig have slipped to St. Louis. They have scored 10 runs to 7 for the entire Cardinal team. And Gehrig alone has driven in eight runs, one more than the entire St. Louis team.

The Yankees have been plain dynamite, and unless they are suppressed it will be all over in short order if another western storm doesn't break upon the scene tomorrow.

Pass Them All.

"The Cardinal pitchers have used a bad judgment in having Ruth and Gehrig," remarked Wilbert Kohinson. "What about Messel, Lazzari, Bengough and asked."

"That's all right," replied the Brooklyn leader. "And maybe he is right. It could not have been worse for the Cardinals, anyway."

'Wings,' Thrilling Air Epic, Grips Erlanger Audience

"Wings," the flying war picture that for months has been heralded as a classic of the motion picture industry, had its premiere at the Erlanger theater Monday night, being booked for a two-week appearance at that popular playhouse.

To the mind of this critic, "Wings" is all that it has been cracked up to be and even more. It is two holders of thrills, of stupendous war scenes of gripping heart interest, of rare and daringly new photography that literally makes you hold to your seat to keep from falling a thousand feet through the clouds.

"Wings" in "The Big Parade" of the air. It is easily the most gigantic and realistic attempt that has ever been made to tell in pictures the story of the heroism of the men who fought above the struggling armies below; the grim, devil-may-care attitude of those who trusted their lives to frail winged machines of light steel frame-work and canvas covering. With these they went forth to victory or death against machine gun and anti-aircraft weapons, against the hazards of the upper air and the constant menace of death from a hundred sources.

Great War Scenes.

It is woven magnificently into the great fabric of the war, showing the battle planes in combat above the fields of France. It shows how flaming planes crashed to earth in a mass of wreckage, and how men still dared to ascend even in the face of death.

To attempt to describe "Wings" is almost an impossibility. How can one tell of the crashing detonations of war so accurately imitated by the special traveling orchestra that gives added emphasis to the picture? How can one describe the sweeping slashes of the air currents 10,000 feet above earth that the fighting planes executed in their maneuvering for the death shot?

And how can one attempt to tell of the superb acting of Clara Bow, the small town girl who loved the hero, of Charles Rogers and Richard Arlen, who played the airmen into whose lives was entwined a thread of romance and of tragedy?

Star Cast.

All these things were in "Wings," but you must see it to understand the beauty, the sublimity of the thing. It's a big picture staged in a big way, with other stars in an all-star cast, including El Brendel, Johnnie Ralston, Richard Tucker, Cooper Cooper, "Gun" Smith, Henry B. Walthall, Julia Swayn, Gordon, Arlette, Merchal, George Irving, Hedda Hopper and Nigel de Bruin.

The picture is a Lucien Hubbard production presented by Adolph Zukor and Jesse L. Lasky, and these three have combined all their skill and experience in producing this, the masterpiece of modern screen epics.

"Wings," as stated before, will be at the Erlanger for two weeks. Not only this critic, but all who have seen it will tell you not to miss seeing it.

VITAPHONE 'TALKIE' THRILLS AUDIENCE AT RIALTO THEATER

Another Warner Brothers Vitaphone attraction, "The Midnight Taxi," affords splendid entertainment at the Rialto theater.

Drama, mystery and adventure are woven into a story which grips the audience through the depiction of realistic experiences of a band of suave, clever crooks.

Helene Costello and Antonio Moreno are the principal characters in the film and much of the success of the picture is attributed to their masterful acting. The more important parts of the film are synchronized with the Vitaphone which adds immensely to the unraveling of the plot.

Miss Costello's sweetest has been framed by a new gang of crooks and she solves the mystery which frees her lover. However, this is not accomplished until she has experienced a series of adventures. The picture ends in a most unexpected manner. It is different from the customary present-day plots, which is probably the reason for its unanimous acceptance at the matinee Monday.

Bailey and Barnum present "The White Elephant," an interesting Vitaphone act which includes the approval of the cash customers. Eddie Conrad, famous comedian, also scores a hit in another talkie attraction. Paramount News shows action pictures of the Tech-V. M. I. football game complete a well-balanced show.

GREAT HIT SCORED BY VON STROHEIM FILM AT HOWARD

Erich Von Stroheim, director and star of the immortal screen version of "The Merry Widow," has scored another undeniable triumph in "The Wedding March," current at the Howard theater. Although trite in motif, but with a somewhat rare cinematic denouement, this Paramount sound vehicle, which was two years in the making, literally abounds with scenes of almost indescribable splendor and charm, elements which alone make it a masterpiece.

Von Stroheim himself in the role of a son of the nobility of Austria in pre-war days assures the success of "The Wedding March" when, with characteristic sagaciousness, he chose the wistful Fay Wray for the leading feminine part—that of a peasant's daughter, with whom, quite naturally, he would become enamored. As is quite customary, the parents of the eminent son have disapproved of his "marriage money" and one that is "his equal socially" and usually the son defiantly takes the proletarian bride—but not so in "The Wedding March."

Leon Carrillo and Lynn Cowan, both widely known entertainers, offer some of the most entertaining bits on the movie screen. A Movietone news reel, with considerable news, completes the program.

UNUSUAL VARIETY CARD IS OFFERED ON GEORGIA STAGE

There are strange things afoot on the stage at Keith's this week and no mistake. What with statues that come to life, and exotic dances galore, and a variety of high-class entertainment, it all the antics of an Italian-American whiz, it really leaves one's head in a whirl, albeit a pleasurable one.

The variety bill starts out in a well-behaved manner with the Zella brothers doing some more than creditable gymnastics and contortions. Next Don Humbert sings and plays a guitar, a la Nick Lucas, and all very pleasing too.

And then the bill begins to depart sharply from the ordinary in variety. An elaborate offering called "Variations of Dance," is shown with original and exotic dances galore, performed by a company of highly competent girls and one lone man.

Next Hunter and Percival appear and offer their "straight" act, cycled "Wopology," which by the way is good—the big dancing ensemble re-appears in a bit called "In the Orient." Fair enough. But—through this Oriental thing goes Mr. Hunter, apparently oblivious to the fact that the piece should be a serious and sober dance drama. He makes his merry way through it all.

On the screen Babe Daniels, the athletic miss, appears in "Take Me Home," so named, it is believed, because no one ever does. It is an amusing little story of back stage life.

Princess Weds in Court and Fifteen Are Injured as Studio Is Wrecked.

Fort Lee, N. J., October 2.—(AP)—Fifteen persons were hurt, at least one seriously, in an explosion at the Peerless Moving Picture studio in West Fort Lee late today. Inflam- mable material which workmen were spreading on the floor of the building as part of preparation for taking of talking pictures there, became ignited when, it is believed, a cigarette was dropped. Holes were blown in the structure and the persons injured suffered burns, cuts and bruises.

Empire.

Dolores Del Rio and Don Alvarado, in "The Merry Widow," will be shown for the last time today at the Empire theater, corner of Georgia avenue and Crew street. This film depicts the story of a tragic marriage into which a wealthy girl is tricked by a spendthrift.

Tudor.

"Burning Bridges," the Harry Carey feature at the Tudor today is a high-speed railroad western drama of the rails and ranges. This veteran character player has a dual role in this latest release, playing the part of two brothers.

Cameo.

"Barthelme Santell-O-Day!" This combination is not a football triple pass, but rather a combination of making big pictures such as "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," showing at the Cameo today.

Ponce de Leon.

The regeneration of an East Side boxer, through the travail of war and the love of a woman, is the graphic story of "The Patented Leather Kid," at the Ponce de Leon theater today only.

The Patented Leather Kid stars the ultra-Bard of the screen, an ideal vehicle for the artistry of this young screen star. In "The Patented Leather Kid," Barthelme is said to exceed even his finest efforts in these former vehicles.

UNITY CLASS TO MEET

The Unity Study class will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon in room 413, chamber of commerce building under leadership of Mrs. N. Kelley Tubbs, formerly of Berkeley, Calif.

ARTISTIC DANCERS, BURLESQUE TURN, SCORE AT CAPITOL

A beautifully-executed dancing set offered by Lorraine and Minto shares honors with Clark and Bergman's travesty bit on marriage, on the current variety bill at Loew's Capitol.

Miss Lorraine is as graceful a dancer as has been seen on an Atlanta stage in some time. She is assisted by her male companions and the act throughout is artistic and smoothly done. Clark and Bergman do a very entertaining bit, but still effective, theme of the burlesque courtship and the post-honeymoon aftermath.

Noble, presumably a close relative of Father Neptune, has a novel set in which she eats, sings, acts the oracle and generally comports herself in a most extraordinary manner under the name of Ed Sheriff and company.

The picture is another "crook" drama—but don't let this discourage you. It is not a little different and Lon Chaney, in his first "straight" part, makes it worth while with a strong characterization.

The program is rounded out by an overture, news weekly and a Pathe review.

MOVIE EXPLOSION

Fort Lee, N. J., October 2.—(AP)—Fifteen persons were hurt, at least one seriously, in an explosion at the Peerless Moving Picture studio in West Fort Lee late today. Inflam- mable material which workmen were spreading on the floor of the building as part of preparation for taking of talking pictures there, became ignited when, it is believed, a cigarette was dropped. Holes were blown in the structure and the persons injured suffered burns, cuts and bruises.

Two Stars . . . Popularity has pulled 'em to the top—now in a great love comedy drama!

Banquet to Highway Guests Is on This Evening's Calendar

The Bankhead National Highway association goes into session today to further its good work in the completion, marking, maintenance, beautifying and advertising of the highway. During these bright blue October afternoons there will be motor tours about Atlanta and out to Stone Mountain to view the Confederate memorial on the face of that great piece of granite. Visitors attending the convention will be greeted in the parlors on the mezzanine floor of the Ansley hotel this morning by Mrs. James D. Robinson, gracious hostess chairman, and members of her committee appointed to serve during the meeting. The initial formal entertainment on the list of social affairs planned for these prominent delegates is the banquet given at the Biltmore this evening.

Miss Frances Floyd and Emory Cooke and their wedding party will be honored guests at a lovely buffet supper at the Piedmont Driving club tonight, given by Mrs. Benjamin Cooke, mother of the groom-elect, taking place immediately after the rehearsal of their wedding ceremony, which will be performed under the star-lit canopy of the heavens.

Social Tea

Is Postponed.

The Service Star Legion, Atlanta and Fulton county chapter, will meet at the Atlanta Woman's club Tuesday afternoon, October 9, at 3 o'clock. The social tea is postponed and members urged to attend.

Mrs. Sam Wood

Honors Miss Fisher.

Mrs. Sam Wood was hostess at a miscellaneous shower Monday afternoon at her home on Tenth street in compliment to Miss Sarah Fisher, a popular bride-elect.

Mr. and Mrs. Candler

Honor Fraternities.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard Candler entertained Monday evening at their home, "Glenwood," on Briarcliff road, honoring the members of the Kappa Sigma and Kappa Alpha fraternities of Emory university and the pledges to these chapters.

Miss Evelyn Johnson

Honored at Shower.

Miss Evelyn Johnson, whose marriage to John Sneed, of Savannah, will take place soon, was honored at a miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon when the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. J. H. Jordan, entertained at her home on Argonne avenue.

Mr. Cooke Honors

Groomsmen at Dinner.

Emory Cooke was host at dinner Monday evening at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel in compliment to his groomsmen. Mr. Cooke's marriage on Wednesday evening to Miss Frances Floyd will be one of the outstanding social events of the fall season.

Dinner was served at 7 o'clock in one of the private dining rooms of the hotel, covers being placed for the groomsmen who are John Oliver, Hugh Carter, Esmond Brady, Alfred Floyd, Earl Elmore, of New York, and Mr. Cooke.

Miss Hodgson And Mr. Van Winkle Are Honored

Miss Jennie Crocker Hodgson and Edward King Van Winkle, whose marriage will be a brilliant social event of Wednesday, October 17, at Ponce de Leon Avenue Baptist church, were honor guests at the dinner given last evening by Frank Harrold, a groomsmen in the wedding party entertained at his home in the Ponce de Leon apartments.

Red roses combined with baby breath formed the central decoration of the elegantly appointed dinner table, with place cards hand-painted Dresden figures. Miss Hodgson and Mr. Van Winkle were presented French novelties as souvenirs of the occasion at the bridge party following the dinner.

Covers were laid for Miss Hodgson, Miss Elizabeth Phillips, Mr. Van Winkle, Walter Sturdivant, Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Ellis, Miss Alice Harrold, of Americus, and Frank Harrold.

Miss Sarah Fisher

Honored by Miss Guin.

Miss Yolande Guin was hostess at luncheon yesterday at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel in compliment to Miss Sara Miller Fisher, bride-elect, whose marriage to Irwin Stolz, of Greenville, S. C., will be a social event taking place in Newman Wednesday, October 17.

Covers were placed for: Miss Fisher, Misses Lillian Johnson, Julianne Hagan, Harriet Turman, Mary Wellborn, of Anniston, Ala.; Janie Howell, William C. Warren, Jr., of Ben Miller and Miss Guin.

Atlanta D. A. R.

To Sponsor Bridge.

The Atlanta chapter, D. A. R., sponsors a bridge party at Craigie house, Friday, October 19, at 2:30 o'clock. Tables will be $2 each. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Thomas C. Moore, HEMlock 3792; Mrs. E. L. McLaughlin, HEMlock 7141; and Mrs. Bun Wylie, HEMlock 5498-J.

Apron Tea Given

In College Park.

The ladies of the College Park community are invited to an apron tea at the home of Mrs. D. C. Lyle, North Main street, College Park, Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. A table of attractive aprons and a table of jellies and jams, reasonably priced, will be on display. Tea and sandwiches will be served.

Hairdressers Meet

Tuesday Evening.

The Georgia Hairdressers' association meets at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in the Randolph Beauty Parlor in the Henry Grady hotel. The Atlanta association was reorganized as the Georgia association at the September meeting of that body. A. G. Scott is president.

Fort McPherson Polo Players

Compete for Carl Vretman Cup

Fort McPherson, October 8.—Interest in the social circles of fashionable Atlanta and the military set center around the series of polo games played every Sunday between the Governor's Horse guards and the McPherson squad for the handsome trophy, which is awarded the winning team by Carl Vretman, of Atlanta.

The trophy was designed and executed in plaster by Mr. Vretman and represents a polo player in action with uplifted stick in eager pursuit of the ball. Mr. Vretman has shown real ability in his treatment of his subject and the winning team will gain a much-coveted treasure.

The two small daughters of Mr. Vretman, Miss Emmakate and Miss Isabel, will present the trophy at the final game of the tournament, which will take place at the fort late in October.

The game played at the garrison Sunday afternoon was an exciting affair, resulting in a victory for the guardsmen, with a score of 5-6. This is the second game of the fall tournament and since each team has tasted victory the outcome of Sunday's game is awaited with keen interest.

Following the game a delightful tea was given at the Officers' club by the Polo and Riding club, with Mrs. John R. Dinsmore, Mrs. Thomas H. Ramsey and Miss Dorothy Tebbitts as official hostesses. The tea table was overlaid with an exquisite cloth of canton linen and graced with a low silver bowl filled with flowers of early autumn. Mrs. Richmond P. Davis poured tea and Mrs. Lovell W. Caffey poured coffee. Among the guests who called during the tea hour were Major General and Mrs. Richmond P. Davis, Colonel and Mrs. Lovell W. Caffey, Major and Mrs. Gustav H. Franks, Major Gus Tolson, Miss Florence Bluffield, Miss Anna Claypoole, Major and Mrs. Rowland

Stanford-Kirkman Wedding Rites Are Solemnized at All Saints'

Miss Katherine Harwood Stanford, lovely young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harwood McCulloch Stanford, became the bride of Hugh Kirkman at a beautiful ceremony solemnized at 8:30 o'clock Monday evening at All Saints' church. The Rev. Dr. W. W. Memminger read the marriage service in the presence of a large assembly of friends and relatives.

Following the ceremony an appropriate program of nuptial music was rendered. Miss Mary Battle, organist, played "Evening Star" softly during the ceremony.

The Wedding Party.

The ushers, Harwood Stanford, Walpole Otis, Ralph Aiken and C. G. Anderson entered first in pairs.

The bridesmaids were Misses Annette Gay, Frances Wells, Sophie Horne and Katherine Lyon, of Whiteville, N. C., first cousin of the groom. They wore gowns of the fashion of the day. Misses Gay and Wells entered first in pairs. They were followed by Misses Horne and Lyon, wearing gowns of coral chiffon. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of yellow and coral tulle. Court Stenographer Records Local Woman's Club Meeting

BY ANNIE LOU HARDY.

The presence of H. L. Parry, court stenographer, at the October meeting of the Atlanta Woman's club held Monday afternoon in the auditorium of the club house, was announced by the president, Mrs. Charles Goodman, at the opening of the business session.

"There is a court reporter present and the chair requests every lady who rises to speak to first give her name clearly and to speak very distinctly," said Mrs. Goodman at the opening of the meeting. Mr. Parry was present at the request of the executive board members in order that an exact account of Monday's meeting could go on record.

This feature and the objection on the part of Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, parliamentary speaker for the Horndy faction, requesting that the words "alleged" and "disorder" be stricken from the minutes of the September meeting as read by the secretary, Mrs. R. I. Reed, were outstanding points of the meeting, which is the second year which Mrs. Goodman presided since her election last May.

It will be recalled that at the meeting held September 10, the supporters of Mrs. John R. Horndy, who the court ruled after the May meeting could not occupy the chair as president, attended the meeting and endeavored to read copies of the minutes of the May meeting in an attempt to show that Mrs. Goodman was not legally elected. Mrs. Goodman ruled them out of order and adjourned the meeting.

In Mrs. Reed's report of the September meeting she referred to the copies of the minutes as "alleged" and stated that Mrs. Goodman's reason for adjourning the meeting was the reign of "disorder."

Mrs. Goodman called upon the club parliamentary, Mrs. Horndy Douglas, to decide the point of contention raised by Mrs. Richardson, and Mrs. Douglas ruled that the proposed corrections be accepted. Mrs. Richardson stated that the copies were prepared by an attorney in the office of the club and were in exact duplication.

The program featuring a group of songs by Dr. Alfred de Jonge, noted baritone and member of the Agnes Scott music faculty, and a lecture, "Art in Civic Life," by R. J. McKinney, director of the High Museum of Art, preceded the short business session.

New Members. Mrs. W. D. Williamson, chairman of the membership committee, read the following names of new members recently added to the club's roster: Mesdames George W. McCarty, Blair Foster, Fred Hanes, J. H. Hines, E. G. Baendry, Samuel E. Bowman, O. J. Sale and Miss Marian C. Kreighaber.

Following the report of the treasurer, Mrs. J. A. Carlie, the president announced that on November 13, a club birthday breakfast, celebrating the club anniversary, will be held in the banquet hall.

Following a number of announcements made by the president, a motion of adjournment was made and seconded by Mrs. David Eichenberg. It will be recalled that the Atlanta Woman's club is still involved in court litigation, pending a decision of the supreme court upon the contested question as to whether Mrs. Goodman or Mrs. Horndy was elected the club president, the lower court having previously ruled that Mrs. Charles Goodman is the legal head of the organization.

Beauty Fashions. A charming one-piece frock is here developed in brown checked woolen, with trimming in beige crepe. This style is also attractive in navy georgette with pipings of red, or white or tan on collar, belt and cuffs. The skirt forms plaited panels below the shaped waist portion of the front, an additional plait is formed from the one-piece back. The neck edge is finished with a rolled collar. The comfortable sleeve has gathered fullness above a band cuff.

The pattern for this pleasing style is cut in four sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. To make the dress for a 12-year size will require 23-8 yards of 54-inch material together with 3-8 yard of contrasting material for facing on collar, cuffs and belt.

Charming Models Display Fall Costumes In J. P. Allen's Colorful Fashion Show

Three models as seen at J. P. Allen's informal Fashion show Monday—left to right, Miss Jimmie Lester, wearing black chiffon velvet, with deep border of white gardenias; Mrs. Jack Shuford, in white satin and tulle; Miss Elizabeth Watson, wearing a marine blue chiffon velvet wrap with chinchilla collar. Photographs by George Cornett.

At the J. P. Allen fashion show given on Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock and at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the models wore, for the most part, Dolman shoes, alternating with Cusins and Andrew Geller models in suede, kid, and suede combined, moire and gold, and other smart combinations in black, navy, brown, tans and simulated lizard.

Velour du Nord—a soft, rich quality velvet—is particularly good in coats and was shown in one model with golden fitch collar and cuffs making a striking effect.

The picture demonstrates the vogue for black velvet and white satin—used separately, of course—showing as it does the exquisite black chiffon velvet at the left, and the white tulle over white satin, center. At the right is the marine blue velvet wrap. (This same wrap appears also in a gorgeous flame color.)

Other models attracting delighted attention were the black lace evening and afternoon gowns, the black chiffon frock with tremendous lace and georgette bertha of soft cream color, a grey and red ensemble—red coat and skirt with grey blouse trimmed in red, the coat lined with grey wolf—and a novel grey ensemble with Persian lamb collar. Fur coats had their appearance, too, with caracul and broadtail and ermine trimming for first favor. Grey and light beige tones lead in the fur coats shown—other handsome coats were in light tans with darker furs, fitch and beaver notably.

All of the models shown were adaptations of Lanvin, Paton, Amsterdam, Gershel, Miller Sours and other Parisian and American houses of note.

YOUR BOY AND YOUR GIRL BY ARTHUR DEAN, SC. D.

SEX EDUCATION. "Why do I have to ask others what I should hear from my mother's lips?" asks one of our readers who signs herself, "Eighteen-year-old Working Girl."

"Why?" one might ask, "Why, indeed?" Is it because some mothers do not know how? Do they lack a vocabulary? Have their own experiences been such that they have a sex complex? Do they think that this information is better taught to their daughter by some boy? Or that knowledge is more wholesomely acquired from old wives tales and doubtful magazines or other soiled sources.

Apart from those mothers who solve the problem by evasive answers there are many fine and well-intentioned mothers who meet their Waterloo when they attempt to impart sex education. "If I only had a book," writes one mother, "which I could put into the hands of my daughter and then run away while she read it." Now isn't this pathetic? The mother is actually afraid to face the facts of existence.

It wouldn't be at all surprising if daughter knew more about the so-called facts of life than the mother.

"I have found a lovely little book called, 'The Way Life Begins,' writes another mother. 'It's all about flowers and fishes and I'm going to tell all about it to my 15-year-old son.' Yes, indeed, it is a lovely book for a 6-year-old and gives both mother and son a fine start in acquiring a beautiful and wholesome conception of reproduction. But to talk flowers and fishes to a 15-year-old!

"The government at Washington will send free," writes a father, "a wonderful book on sex evils which I am using to scare my youngster. It surely gives a boy a whole of a scare."

Well, now, my friend, I wouldn't do that if I were you. I am sure the government never intended the book you refer to for that purpose. And you will be grievously disappointed at the results you obtain. What you should do is to develop a fine ideal and a wholesome conception in your son of the attitude he must always maintain toward all womanhood. And let me assure you, my friend, that when your son has acquired such an ideal and standard he is more firmly grounded than you can ever hope for him to be if he is inhibited only by fear. He will soon conquer fear but an ideal is granite strong.

Yet this daughter entertains my younger child with songs and stories nicely, recognizes most of the alphabet, can count to 25 and spell her own name. Shall I keep her in kindergarten another term?

Answer—No. A kindergarten teacher who is able to judge a child of that age as not being bright is worth exhibiting at a teachers' convention. Your own description of the child indicates she is at least average. I believe somewhat in intelligence tests but they are by no means infallible when applied to such small children.

Pay the Piper. I have been using pater's car most any time I like. Recently I did $700 worth of damage to it and since then he refuses to let me take the car, giving me money to take cabs instead. I can handle the car as well as he can, perhaps better. The collision was not my fault. I would appreciate anything you could do to help me out.

SEVENTEEN. Answer—All right, I will. Show me your car and I will determine if it is worth the trouble. If it is, I will give you the car. If it is not, I will give you the money. I will see the error of his ways. Meanwhile patronize the street cars or walk and that will help some towards the seven hundred.

WORLD CURB ON TONNAGE HITS FRANCO-BRITISH AGREEMENT

Rome, October 8. (AP)—The Italian reply to the Franco-British proposals for limitation of naval armaments, delivered Saturday to the ambassador in Rome, appears to support, in part at least, the position of the United States, although proposing more sweeping discussion of all disarmament.

The Italian reply declares for a global limitation of tonnage instead of limitation by categories. Part of the American objection to the Franco-British agreement had been that certain classes were practically unlimited. The United States at the same time expressed willingness to meet certain national defense needs by permitting transference of tonnage from one class to another.

The Italian note maintains the interdependence of the different forms of armaments, military, naval and aeronautical, and reaffirms the principles outlined by the chief of the government in his speech before the senate last June, that disarmament conversation should include all branches of arms.

By global limitation Italy believes each state would have the right to use the established tonnage in the construction of warships which it feels best answers its necessities. The tendency to increase the number of naval categories jeopardized attempts to reach an accord and adds to the disadvantages of limitation.

BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON, Associated Press Staff Writer.
Grand Forks, N. D., October 8. (AP)—The challenge of Chairman Raskob, of the democratic national committee, to show that Governor Smith had endorsed the Underwood tariff bill in the Wilson administration was picked up today by Senator Curtis, the republican vice presidential nominee.

In two speeches in North Dakota, at Devils Lake and here, Curtis insisted that Governor Smith had "indorsed" the Underwood bill in his address of acceptance.

The republican vice presidential nominee based his assertion on the language in the address of Governor Smith: "The democratic party does not and under my leadership will not advocate any sudden or drastic revolution in our country."

Senator Curtis said that "Mr. Raskob or Raskob, whatever his name is," had only given the first sentence of the Smith pronouncement and declared that he was correctly quoted that he would resign his position if it could be shown that Governor Smith had endorsed the Underwood bill.

Governor Smith indorses that measure which robbed the American farmer of about $5,000,000,000. Curtis declared that three American labor out of employment, that failed to protect industry and that didn't protect enough money to pay the running expenses of the government.

The senator came to the meeting just in time to go to the town place. This afternoon at Devils Lake he addressed a crowd of about 1,000 people, opera house and both there and here he emphasized farm relief.

NEBRASKA CONVICT HANGS HIMSELF IN PRISON CELL

Lincoln, Neb., October 8. (AP)—Edward Ingram, 45, serving a long sentence for bank robbery, hanged himself in his cell at the penitentiary yesterday, using a twisted bed sheet as a rope.

Ingram was sentenced eight years ago following conviction for the robbery of a bank at Howe, Neb. In a fight with officers following the robbery he was wounded on the head, which it was believed for several weeks that he would die.

MRS. ROSS URGES VOTES FOR SMITH ON WOMEN'S ISSUE

Philadelphia, October 8. (AP)—Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former governor of Wyoming, addressing a democratic meeting here today urged women voters to support Governor Smith in recognition of the democratic party's stand for the advancement of women's rights.

"You should give your whole support to Governor Smith," Mrs. Ross said. "Repeatedly we hear it said that women will determine the result of this election. It may be so."

"The democratic party is in a particularly advantageous position in appealing to the support of women. It was a democratic party that first of all the nation conferred upon women the privilege of suffrage and that voluntarily when there was no clamor for it."

3 KILLED, 8 HURT WHEN BOMB HITS TRAIN IN INDIA

Bombay, India, October 8. (AP)—Three passengers were killed and eight injured today at Manmaw when a bomb shattered one car of a train en route to Bombay. The bomb was described as "anesthetized" today, after an operation for an intestinal abscess Saturday. Mr. Strong was said to be resting comfortably at the New York hospital and standing the effects of the operation well.

TEXAS MAN CLEARED OF KIDNAP CHARGE

Houston, Texas, October 8. (AP)—With one of the men alleged to have participated in the lynching of Robert Powell, negro, here June 20 cleared by a jury, the state has turned to gathering evidence against five other men indicted for murder in connection with the case.

Charlie Oldham, first of the sextet to go to trial, was freed yesterday. The case went to the jury late Saturday afternoon after a short trial, featured by the testimony of Detective Captain Tom Shelley that he had advised Oldham to sign a statement in connection with the case, and had told Oldham that he didn't think anything much would come of the affair.

Oldham testified he was at home at the time the negro was lynched. He said his statement was based on information he gained when he heard another of the indicted men dictate a statement about the case. Oldham asked him to make the statement in order to help them "hush up" adverse publicity being given Houston.

By global limitation Italy believes each state would have the right to use the established tonnage in the construction of warships which it feels best answers its necessities. The tendency to increase the number of naval categories jeopardized attempts to reach an accord and adds to the disadvantages of limitation.

SUB-DEB OF 16 TAKES LINDBERGH FOR PLANE RIDE

Port Washington, N. Y., October 8. Eleanor Hoyt, 16, sub-deb, is a good aviator, good enough to have the best aviator as a passenger and to make a 1,500 foot flight in a biplane. She was under a charge of murder, filed in connection with the death of C. D. DeLoach, N. Y. Davis, who was shot to death in a fight with a man.

The lynching, coming just before the democratic national convention at Houston, attracted considerable attention.

DR. POOLE EULOGIZED AT FUNERAL SERVICES

Douglasville Physician Laid to Rest With Impressive Rites.

Douglasville, Ga., October 8.—(Special.)—Following impressive ceremonies, attended by scores of his professional and neighborhood friends, Dr. Reuben Hayne Poole, one of the most prominent citizens of this section, was laid to his final rest here Sunday afternoon.

The love and appreciation in which he was held by all who knew him was reflected in the services and the floral tributes which were paid to Dr. Poole. The entire community gathered around the bier and glowing eulogies were included in the sermon, preached by the Rev. Willis Jones and the Rev. Lowery, ministers of the Methodist and Baptist churches, respectively. The Masonic services were held by Douglasville Lodge No. 289, Colonel Astor Merritt in charge.

Dr. Poole, who died Friday, was a member of the A. T. O. fraternity of Auburn, having been graduated from the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, following which he was graduated from the Southern Medical College of Atlanta, where he began his medical career.

Surviving him are the following relatives: Mrs. P. E. Baxley, Miss Carrie Poole, Mrs. B. P. Pickett, Mrs. J. C. Wallace and DeWitt C. Poole, daughters and son, respectively, and several nephews and nieces.

MAINE WOMAN TO TOUR SOUTH FOR G. O. P. TICKET

Augusta, Maine, October 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Gertrude M. Pattangall of this city, former woman member of the democratic national committee from Maine, will campaign in the south for Hoover and Curtis, she announced today.

With Mrs. Halsey Wilson, of New York, Mrs. Pattangall will speak in Virginia, Kentucky and Missouri, beginning next Tuesday. The Virginia address will be made under the auspices of the constitutional democrats association, an organization of democratic women who have bolted the party ticket because of the position of Governor Smith on the prohibition laws.

ACTION ON SHIPS

Board Will Close Deal on Savannah Bid at Today's Meeting.

Washington, October 8.—(Special.)—The shipping board announced today that it would take final action tomorrow at its regular meeting on the approved sale of the American Palmetto line to the South Atlantic Steamship line of Savannah, Ga. The sale involves the transfer to private ownership of nine vessels aggregating 70,485 deadweight tons for $211,455. E. S. Trosdal, president of the purchasing company, is here to complete the negotiations.

BYRD BASKS IN SUN AWAITING CALL OF POLAR EXPEDITION

Los Angeles, October 8.—(Special.)—Following impressive ceremonies, attended by scores of his professional and neighborhood friends, Dr. Reuben Hayne Poole, one of the most prominent citizens of this section, was laid to his final rest here Sunday afternoon.

NEW YORK SEWER BRIBERY CASES IS NEARING CLOSE

New York, October 8.—(Special.)—Prosecutor Anthony J. Bonaventura neared the end of his trial today in his effort to convict former Queens Borough President Maurice E. Connelly and four other men of conspiring with the late John M. Phillips, so-called Queens sewer pipe king, to defraud the city through sewer contracts. The state's case probably will be completed tomorrow or Wednesday.

Today Bonaventura put two more sewer contractors on the stand in hope of bringing out additional evidence of excessive prices Phillips charged for his patented lock-joint sewer pipe, which was specified for Queens sewer jobs.

They were William H. Hastings and James Gallo. Gallo said he had paid Phillips $10 to $15 a foot for Phillips pipe. This was above the market price, according to the chart Bonaventura has made for the jury to follow the $25 and $40-a-foot prices witnesses last week told of paying to Phillips until quotations suddenly doubled to $5 a foot when the sewer investigation began.

THEATER ROBBER IS IDENTIFIED AS MAIL TRAIN BANDIT

Chicago, October 8.—(Special.)—Virgil Litzinger, indicted for participation in the $135,000 Evergreen Park mail robbery of last February, today was identified from photographs as the lone robber who last night held up five employees of the Chicago theater while 5,000 persons watched the show and escaped with the day's receipts of $6,400.

Litzinger is one of two men involved in the Evergreen Park robbery who has not been captured. Charles "Limpy" Cleaver, the ringleader, now in the state penitentiary, is also in prison and two of those accused of holding up a Grand Trunk mail train were killed before they were captured.

MRS. EVELYN PHILLIPS WILL BE BURIED TODAY

Beloved Church Worker,
Member of Pioneer Family, Died Monday.

Funeral services for Mrs. Evelyn Phillips, widely known church worker and member of one of Atlanta's foremost pioneer families, will be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon from the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. J. K. Coit, of Nacoochee, will officiate and interment will be in Oakland.

Mrs. Phillips died early Monday morning at her residence in the Ponce de Leon apartments at the age of 79, after a protracted illness. Mrs. Phillips was a native of Georgia and her parents, John and Mary Phillips, were prominent in religious activities and in church and social circles she was warmly admired. While the passing of the beloved Atlanta woman was not sudden, news of her death came as a great shock to her many friends and relatives.

Up to the time of her illness six months ago Mrs. Phillips participated prominently in church work, being forced to retire recently from active work due to poor health. Born in Atlanta 1849, she was the daughter of John and Mary Phillips, who lived for nearly four-score years in her native city, where her parents distinguished themselves as pioneer citizens. She was the daughter of the late Judge Julius A. Hayden and the granddaughter of Judge Deane Cone, whose honor "Cone street" was named.

The following prominent citizens will act as pallbearers: A. J. Orme, L. D. Scott, Sam Finley, John T. Sanford, William J. Love, W. P. Pope, Paul L. Fleming, Chesley B. Howard, E. A. Banker and R. G. Hazard. Mrs. Phillips is survived by a son, Frank P. Phillips, of Columbus, Miss.; three sisters, Mrs. A. M. Thrasher, of Montreux, Switzerland; Mrs. George W. Harrison, of Atlanta; and Mrs. John G. Williams, of Evanston, Ill.; a brother, Julius A. Hayden, of Philadelphia; two nieces, Mrs. Frank L. Fleming and Miss Nellie Hightower, both of Atlanta; and a nephew, George W. Harrison, Jr., of Atlanta.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. SCOTT TO BE HELD TODAY

Concord, Ga., October 8.—(Special.)—Mrs. Z. L. Scott died here Sunday night. She is survived by her husband, father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Pink Carter; her sister, Mrs. Phil Carter; and her brother, Ernest, Ernest, Willis, Brice, Otis and Clifton, all residing near Griffin, Ga. The interment will be in Hollen-vue cemetery Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

MRS. WALLACE DIES

Last Services Will Be Held Wednesday.

Mrs. Susie Wallace, of 67 North Central avenue, died Monday at a private hospital after an extended illness. She leaves a sister, Mrs. F. L. Thrall; a daughter, Mrs. D. G. Dunn, of College Park; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. John Brock, of Lake, and Mrs. Ora Spraggins, of Atlanta. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning at Bethesda church. Dr. M. C. McGaughey will officiate and burial will be in the churchyard. Brandon and Williams, funeral directors, are in charge.

DISPLAY MEN TO MEET

Annual Banquet Will Be Held Tonight.

Members of the Atlanta Display Men's club will hold their annual banquet at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Winwood hotel. The club is composed of window dressers and display executives of local firms, and is affiliated with the International Association of Display Men. T. C. Rogers is president and will preside at the annual banquet. Other officers include George Brainer, vice president; V. T. McGilton, secretary, and E. B. Kantor, treasurer.

Rain May Fall This Afternoon, Forecast Says

Fair skies with unchanging temperature for the greater part of the day and possible light showers late in the afternoon is the weather menu for today, according to C. F. von Herrmann, meteorologist of the United States weather station.

The temperature range for Monday was from 62 to 81 degrees. A variation of only a few degrees in the maximum limit is expected to be witnessed here today, the weather man stated. According to the forecast, the mercury column will begin its ascent today at the 62-degree level, climbing as high as 83 degrees before starting on the downward curve shortly after noon.

NAVY'S BIG DIRIGIBLE MOORED IN TEXAS

Fort Worth, Texas, October 8.—(Special.)—The navy dirigible Los Angeles to night was moored in Texas, and was the first time, with her nose safely secured to the 100-foot mooring mast at the government helium plant here. The ship was tied up at 6:45 p. m. without mishap.

The ship's forty men and officers under command of Lieutenant-Commander H. V. Wiley stepped to earth for the first time since the giant gas bag left its home base at Lakehurst, N. J., at dusk Saturday.

After reaching San Antonio, Texas, the dirigible was scheduled to return to San Antonio tomorrow morning in time for the annual parade of the American legion, which is holding its annual convention there.

The dirigible, Son Antonio, this morning at 9:40 o'clock, the dirigible hovered over the city for more than an hour, then headed for the only mooring mast in the southwest, at Fort Worth.

An immense crowd was lined for a distance of two miles east and west of the mast, but no one without a pass was followed to approach within 600 feet of the structure. The crowd was orderly.

REILLY WITHDRAWS FROM RACE FOR LA FOLLETTE SEAT

Milwaukee, Wis., October 8.—(Special.)—Withdrawal of M. K. Reilly, democratic candidate for United States senator, in favor of Senator Robert M. La Follette, was regarded by political observers today as a move on the part of some democrats at least to effect a progressive democratic coalition in the November election.

La Follette won the republican nomination for reelection at the primary. Reilly in announcing his retirement from the race said he believed La Follette was "just as much in favor of the legislative program for which Governor Smith stands as I am and I also believe he will support that program in the senate."

POISONED ALCOHOL TOLL IN NEW YORK 28 SINCE SUNDAY

New York, October 8.—(Special.)—Twenty-eight deaths from alcoholic poisoning had been reported on New York's lower east side late today, early Sunday, and hospitals in the Bowery section still were receiving sufferers.

Many of the victims were found dead or dying in the streets, while others were taken from cheap lodging houses. Several were not identified.

Dr. Charles Norris, chief medical examiner, and his assistants performed ten autopsies and reported that in each case death was caused by plain wood alcohol, which had been drunk for liquor.

Police and health authorities made efforts to trace the poison to its source.

U. S. Senator George Urges Kentuckians To Support Smith

Elkton, Ky., October 8.—(Special.)—A plea for support of Governor Alfred E. Smith as president of the United States was voiced here this afternoon by U. S. Senator Walter E. George, of Georgia, himself a candidate for the democratic nomination for president early in the Houston convention.

Herbert Hoover has been evasive in his statements on the prohibition question and even to this date has failed to make his position clear, declared Senator George.

He characterized Chairman Moses of the republican national campaign committee as an avowed lower east side Englishman, seeking to garner the wet votes for Hoover.

"It is my belief," the Georgian declared, "that we would have for president enforcement of the prohibition law under Al Smith than we have had during the last eight years under the republicans."

He ended with a plea for religious tolerance, calling attention to Governor Smith's record of appointments in the state of New York, which included 106 Protestants to 25 Catholics.

Louisiana Chinaman Loses Appeal Case; Will Be Deported

Washington, October 8.—(Special.)—Chin Thyn, residing for four years in New Orleans, La., must stand deportation under the Chinese exclusion act, the supreme court today refusing him a review.

He was arrested in September, 1916, and ordered deported. He appealed to the courts, but failing to prosecute his appeal, it was dismissed in 1922. He disappeared but was again arrested in August, 1926, and ordered deported. In February, 1927, he sought to obtain his release on habeas corpus proceedings, based on numerous technical grounds, but the lower courts held that the deportation order was valid.

QUILLIAN FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TODAY

Services Will Be Conducted at Druid Hills Methodist Church.

Funeral services for Fletcher A. Quillian, 69, one of Atlanta's most prominent figures, and for many years a member of the Presbyterian church, will be held today at the residence of his wife, Mrs. Quillian, 1047 Ponce de Leon avenue, N. E., at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the Druid Hills Methodist church. Rev. J. L. Russell, of the church, will officiate.
